INDIAN NAVY FOILS PIRACY ATTEMPT

The Indian Navy foiled a piracy attempt on an Iranian-flagged fishing vessel with a crew of 11 Iranian and eight Pakistani nationals along the east coast of Somalia, in the latest in a series of such rescue missions in the region. Indian warship INS Sharda came to the rescue of FV Omaril after seven pirates boarded it and took the crew as hostages, officials said on Friday.

CM, MLAs, MLCs TO TAKE TAX SHARE FIGHT TO DELHI ON FEB 7

Karnataka lost ₹62,000 crore in last 5 years because of low allocation, says Shivakumar

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

IN what could be a point of friction between state and Central governments, Karnataka Chief Minister Siddaramaiah is planning to take Congress MLAs, MLCs and MPs to New Delhi to protest against the BJP government on February 7.

The protest is against the Centre for depriving the state of its due share of taxes, the party said. Incidentally, the plan for protest has come at a time when Congress MP and Deputy Chief Minister DK Shivakumar's brother DK Suresh has sought a separate nation for southern states, alleging that the allocation of funds for the state has come down.

The decision to protest was taken at a dinner hosted by Siddaramaiah to his cabinet colleagues at his residence on Thursday evening. The gathering also discussed the strategy for the Lok Sabha elections. "136 MLAs, MLCs and MP from the state, led by Siddaramaiah, will reach the national capital on February 6 evening and stage the protest on February 7 against the Centre's injustice to the state," said Shivakumar on Friday.

On opposition BJP seeking an apology from Suresh and even baying for his disqualification from Lok Sabha for his statement, Shivakumar defended his brother. "I was born as an Indian and will die as an Indian. BJP is trying to politicise this. Suresh was only warning the Centre that such a situation may arise if the injustice continues towards Karnataka and other southern states. Congress is the one which has fought for the freedom of the country and continues to fight to keep it united," he remarked.

"Karnataka has been getting a raw deal in the Union Budgets as it has lost a revenue of around Rs 62,000 crore in the last five years. We will draw the attention of the country through the protest," he said. P6

KHARGE'S '400 PAAR' JIBE TRIGGERS UPROAR IN UPPER HOUSE

Congress chief and leader of the Opposition Mallikarjun Kharge prevailed upon the treasury benches in the Rajya Sabha on Friday with his satirical speech on the ruling BJP's claim to win over 400 seats in the upcoming parliamentary polls. It all started when Union minister Piyush Goyal demanded an apology from the Congress for a controversial statement by party MP DK Suresh. Kharge stood up to comment the BJP claims to cross 400 seats. P11

Uttarakhand Assembly to pass UCC next week

NARENDRA SETHI @Dehradun

SETTING the ball rolling to implement the Uniform Civil Code (UCC) in Uttarakhand soon, an expert panel on Friday submitted the draft bill to Chief Minister Pushkar Singh Dhami on Friday. The matter will be discussed in the Cabinet meeting on Saturday and passed during the four-day special session starting Monday, government sources said.

Under UCC, all citizens, regardless of their religion, will have a uniform legal framework for marriage, divorce, land, property, and inheritance. After its rollout, Uttarakhand will become the first state in India after Independence to adopt the code. It has been operational in Goa since the Portuguese rule. UCC was a major poll promise of the BJP in the run-up to the 2022 Assembly polls.

"The committee's major recommendations include equal rights for women in property division in all religions. The rights of women will not be violated even if they marry into other religions or castes. Registration will be necessary for live-in relationships," said an official.

The five-member panel headed by retired Supreme Court Judge Ranjana Prakash Desai was constituted in May 2022. The committee was given six months initially, but it got four extensions to look into all aspects of the sensitive matter. The panel held over 60 meetings and received over 2 lakh written suggestions.

File criminal case against Udayanidhi, says spl court

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

A special court in the city directed the police to register a criminal complaint against Tamil Nadu Youth Development Minister Udayanidhi Stalin and three others for his controversial statement over Sanatana Dharma. The court, which was acting on a private complaint on Friday, also ordered summonses against the four persons.

Udayanidhi's statement, likening Sanatana Dharma to malaria and dengue in September last year, had led to an uproar.

Paramesha V, a social activist, had filed a complaint at the Kadugodi police station against Udayanidhi and three organisers of the event – Venkatesh S, Madhukar Ramalingam and Adavan Dichanya -- where he made the controversial statement. As the police had not registered an FIR, Paramesha filed a private complaint, seeking directions to the police to register an FIR.

Taking cognisance of the offences under Sections 153 (provoking to cause riot), 298 (hurting religious sentiments) and 500 (defamation) of the IPC, Special Court judge Preeth J, who is also the judge of the special court for trying cases against sitting and former MPs/MLAs, ordered the authorities to register a criminal case against the DMK leader and three others. The judge adjourned the hearing till March 4.

Champai sworn in as Jharkhand CM

MUKESH RANJAN @Ranchi

DAYS after a high-voltage political drama here, senior Jharkhand Mukti Morcha (JMM) leader Chamapai Soren took his oath of office and secrecy at the Raj Bhavan on Friday. Senior Congress MLA Alamgir Alam and the lone RJD MLA, Satyanand Bhokta, were then sworn in as Cabinet ministers.

Late on Thursday night, Governor C P Radhakrishnan had called the JMM-Congress-RJD coalition leader Champai and Congress Legislature Party leader Alam to Raj Bhavan and invited them to form the new government. While Chamapi was asked to prove his majority in the Assembly within 10 days of taking oath, sources said the floor test will happen on February 5. Thirty-seven legislators of the ruling alliance were flown to Hyderabad in two chartered planes in the afternoon to prevent possible poaching by the BJP.

Outgoing chief CM Hemant Soren, who put in his papers after his arrest in a land scam case on January 31, did not get any relief from the Supreme Court. The SC bench comprising justices Sanjiv Khanna, M M Sundresh, and Bela Trivedi, asked, "why should you not go to HC?" Senior lawyer Kapil Sibal, appearing for Soren, said they we are dealing with a CM who has been arrested. "See the evidence. This is not fair."

The bench said courts are open to all. Second, HCs, too, are constitutional courts. "If we permit one person, we have to permit everyone."

Soren suffered a second blow as the PMLA court in Ranchi extended his ED custody for five days.

Hours after Champai took the oath of office, former Congress president Rahul Gandhi's Bharat Jodo Nyay Yatra entered Jharkhand on Friday.

Boy kills mom for not making breakfast

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

IN a shocker, a 17-year-old boy allegedly murdered his 40-year-old mother for not preparing breakfast and later surrendered before the police. The incident occurred in the KR Puram police limits on Friday.

The victim, Nethra, was a resident of Justice Bheemaiah Layout in KR Puram and hailed from Mulbagal taluk of Kolar district. She was working at a tech park in Whitefield. The minor in conflict with law is studying diploma at a private college in Mulbagal. His father, Chandrappa, is a farmer, and he has a sister.

The police said the boy after returning home on Thursday night slept without having dinner and his mother berated him for wasting food. Both had an intense argument over it. As he did not have dinner, Nethra did not want to prepare breakfast for him.

The accused was upset that he had not eaten anything and was getting late for college. Again, he had an argument with his mother. In the heat of the moment, Nethra scolded her son. The enraged boy allegedly hit his mother in the head with a metal rod, killing her on the spot. The incident took place around 7.15 am and he surrendered before the police around 45 minutes later.

Tamil actor Vijay floats political party, to contest '26 Assembly polls

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Chennai

PUTTING an end to speculation, actor Vijay on Friday announced the launch of his political party, the Thamizhaga Vetri Kazhagam (TVK), and said it will participate in the 2026 assembly election. In a three-page statement, the 49-year-old made it clear that the TVK will neither contest nor support any party in the upcoming parliamentary election. Vijay, TVK's president, also confirmed that he will be focusing only on politics once he completes his current film commitments. He added that steps are being taken to register his party with the Election Commission of India.

Acknowledging the social services undertaken by his fan club, the Vijay Makkal Iyakkam, the actor said a voluntary organisation alone cannot bring about comprehensive social, economic, and political reforms and that political power is essential to effect these changes.

"A political culture of administrative malpractice and corruption on one hand and a political culture which strives to divide people on the lines of caste and religion on the other are posing challenges to our unity and progress," Vijay said in the statement.

"It is a fact that everyone, especially in Tamil Nadu, is yearning for a fundamental political change that can lead to a selfless, transparent, caste-free, visionary, and corruption-free administration. Most importantly, politics should be based on the principles held close by the state — all are equal by birth. Such a change can only be made by someone who has gained the love of people," the actor said.

"Politics is not another career move. I have been preparing myself for it for a long time by studying lessons from many people. So politics is not a hobby for me; it is my deepest desire and want to fully involve myself in it," he added in the statement.

Panel suggests retaining criminal defamation law

PREETHA NAIR @New Delhi

THE Law Commission of India has recommended that defamation should be retained as a criminal offence within the framework of criminal laws in India. The recommendation is in line with the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023, which replaced the Indian Penal Code (IPC), as it has retained criminal defamation but added community service as one of the punishments.

The Law Commission's report, which was published on Friday, said the right to reputation flows from Article 21 of the Constitution. "Reputation being an integral facet of Article 21, it cannot be allowed to be jeopardised just because an individual has to enjoy his freedom of speech at the expense of hurting the sentiment of another. It is to be understood that the restriction is not completely on one's thoughts and ideas. It is a protection that one can avail in a situation where his reputation is hurt," said the report.

The panel headed by Justice Ritu Raj Awasthy, reviewed all laws relating to criminal defamation in the light of the existing criminal laws, including the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023 and the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023, as well as all judgments on the matter, said the report. The law panel was mandated to reform the defamation law by the Union law ministry in August 2017, stating that existing laws neither serve the interests of the aggrieved person nor the principle of free speech.

Realty firm fined ₹40 lakh for cutting 300 trees, 3 arrested

MOHAMMED YACOOB @Bengaluru

THE BBMP forest cell has sent out a strong message to realtors and builders by getting three persons arrested and imposing a fine of Rs 40 lakh for allegedly illegally felling 303 trees to construct multi-storeyed buildings.

According to forest cell officials, Casa Grand Lotus Pvt Ltd, a real estate company that purchased 17.12 acres of land, had cut 303 trees to make space for the buildings. Though some species of trees are exempt from permission, the Palike still decided to take strict action against the company for not following the rules. Senthil and Bhaskar from the real estate company, and Puttaswamy, a tree-cutting contractor, were arrested. They secured bail later.

DCF, BBMP, BLG Swamy, said his office received a complaint on January 4 that at Survey Number 18 at Mallasandra village of Hemmigepura ward in Bengaluru South taluk, big trees were being chopped and loaded into trucks. An Assistant Conservator of Forests along with a team was rushed to the spot.

"Company officials involved in the alleged tree cutting failed to give a satisfactory reply and did not produce any documents, including a prior permission. A case under the Tree Preservation Act was registered against them and the vendor, who was loading the logs into trucks. The BBMP Forest Cell also collected Rs 40 lakh penalty and ordered the company to plant 1:20 tree saplings for not following the BBMP and Forest Act rules," Swamy said.

"A tree committee has been set up on the directions of the High Court. If a project requires cutting over 50 trees, it has to be brought to the notice of the BBMP Tree Committee. If not, persons involved in tree cutting will be arrested under the Tree Preservation Act," said another officer.

GOVT FIXES FEE FOR ILLEGAL BDA SITE BUYERS

Move will benefit thousands of buyers who purchased sites from original allottees before expiry of lease period

S LALITHA @Bengaluru

IN a move that would benefit thousands of buyers of a Bangalore Development Authority (BDA) site from the original allottee before the lease period expires, the state government has come out with a specific provision to make the ownership legal.

In a notification on Thursday, the Urban Development Department issued rules to amend the Bangalore Development Authority (Allotment of Sites) Rules 1984. The gazette notification in this connection will be out soon.

BDA Commissioner N Jayaram told TNIE, "Some BDA site owners in the past have sold their sites despite the rule that they cannot do so until a lapse of ten years from the date of purchase. The allottee only has a lease-cum-sale deed which is handed over to the purchaser. However, this is not valid legally as the Absolute Sale Deed for the site is still in the possession of BDA. This will be handed over to the original owner only a decade after purchase."

As per the new rules, the purchaser needs to pay 25% of the guidance value that was prevalent at the time of the purchase of the site to the BDA to receive the Absolute Sale Deed. This document ensures regularisation of the site.

The new rules announced by the government will be called the Bangalore Development Authority (Allotment of Sites) (Amendment) 2024, says the notification issued by the Under Secretary of the Urban Development Department. It has inserted the new provision under Rule 14, subrule (2).

Another official said as per the earlier rule in this regard, the purchaser had to pay 25% of the site value and this amount had to be determined by the state government.

"The file seeking to regularise the site would go to the government and it would take time for the amount to be finalised. Moreover, the purchaser will be in the dark as to how much has to be paid. This new rule will enable the purchaser to have a clear idea on the actual amount to be paid to regularise the site," he explained. It would goad them to come forward to legalise it if the amount is affordable.

Another senior official said, "From the time of inception, thousands have sold their sites before the lease period to others. This will benefit them and the clarity established now will give them an opportunity to legalise the sale."

The Absolute Sale Deed is crucial to sell the property in future, to mobilise funds by mortgaging the site to banks or other financiers or even to transfer the site in the name of others, he added.

Tele ICU cluster comes up in Bengaluru, Ballari

DCM D K Shivakumar and Health Minister Dinesh Gundu Rao inaugurate a Tele ICU Cluster at Victoria Hospital in Bengaluru on Friday | SHASHIDHAR BYRAPPA

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

DEPUTY Chief Minister D K Shivakumar and Health and Family Welfare Minister Dinesh Gundu Rao inaugurated a Tele ICU Cluster in Bengaluru and Ballari district on Friday. The DCM lauded the effort and called the tele-intensive care units a revolutionary step in healthcare and a boon for rural areas. He strongly advocated for these centres to be expanded around Karnataka so that everyone could avail quality healthcare.

The ICU cluster in Bengaluru was opened at the Trauma Care Centre in Victoria Hospital in collaboration with nine spoke (taluk) hospitals that it will cater to. "By the time patients are brought to Bengaluru or another large city, it would be too late. This facility is a boon for people in villages," Shivakumar said during the inauguration. He added that the tele ICUs enable ICU beds to be set up in far-off places and the patients there can be monitored remotely by experts in Bengaluru.

Currently, the state has four Tele ICU clusters, including Bengaluru, Mysuru, Hubballi and Ballari. According to data, over 11,000 people have been treated through the Tele ICU system in a year. The service has been implemented in a Public-Private Partnership (PPP) model for Rs 40 crore. The newly added clusters have been linked to nine spoke hospitals each.

The Health Minister said the tele-ICU system will be set up in all taluk hospitals in a phased manner starting with 60 taluk hospitals. "People in rural areas should be treated by qualified specialist doctors. It is becoming difficult for people to come from remote districts for super speciality treatment. We have emphasised the use of technologies in Tele-ICU centres. So far, four government medical institutions have been created as hubs and 41 taluk hospitals have been linked to them," Gundu Rao added.

'KEEP EYE ON AMBULANCES'

During the inauguration, the deputy CM warned 108 ambulance drivers from taking critical patients during emergencies to private hospitals. He instructed the officials to track such ambulances and reprimand the drivers. "There are many complaints that 108 ambulances take patients to private hospitals on priority, despite government hospitals in the area. This puts patients in financial difficulty as private hospitals are expensive. I urge the authorities to use technology and track the ambulances," he said.

Centre's exam bill should not hit students: Experts

THE Union government is expected to introduce a fresh bill in Parliament on Monday to address the issue of malpractice and irregularities in competitive examinations, proposing a maximum jail term of 10 years and a fine of up to Rs 1 crore.

While the Public Examination (Prevention of Unfair Means) Bill, 2024, is much awaited, experts in the educational sector said that stakeholder engagement is key for effective implementation at all levels to punish the 'paper leak' mafias. According to news reports, the Union cabinet cleared the bill at a meeting before the Interim Budget.

While the government aims to prevent malpractices, experts fear the bill might hamper the children's future. Subba Reddy NV, pro vice chancellor, CMR University, said the government should ensure the fine and jail penalty target only those involved in organized cheating schemes and not individual students, as it will jeopardise their future. "Guidelines should include clear distinctions between intentional cheating and unintentional mistakes. Penalties should prioritize rehabilitation and education rather than severe punishment for young offenders," he added.

A professor in the city said the ambitious bill will need close collaboration between the ministry of education and all state education departments. "What is extremely important is the strict implementation of law in practice. It is not the magnitude of punishment alone that matters, but also the swiftness and certainty of punishment. Implementation of the law should be such that it should deter anyone from resorting to such malpractices," said YSR Murthy, vice-chancellor, RV University.

Currently, in India, there are around 300 entrance exams in various disciplines that an undergraduate can opt to appear for, and about 50 are conducted by the government for public service jobs. Educationists asserted that while an unfair means bill might be the need of the hour, the government also needs to look at revisiting the testing system on a timely basis to address the challenges.

Rajendra K Sinha, professor, Jagdish Sheth School of Management, said, "This would require strengthening of IT and physical infrastructure. Developing foolproof IT security systems, and ensuring electronic surveillance. It is important to provide adequate security for invigilators in the centres from the powerful mafias."

When it comes to implementation, educationists worry that students might have to bear the cost of these compliances, increasing exam fees. "It is important to exercise caution to avoid placing an excessive burden on students by increasing the cost of examinations," said Piyush Kumar Pareek, professor, Nitte Meenakshi Institute of Technology.

SNOOZE IN A POD WHILE YOU WAIT FOR YOUR TRAIN

An artist's impression of a sleeping pod that will come up at two railway stations

S LALITHA @Bengaluru

RELAX comfortably and catch forty winks while you wait for your train. Cosy sleeping pods are set to make their debut at the busy Sir M Visvesvaraya Terminal (SMVT) at Baiyappanahalli and KSR Bengaluru Railway Station. These air-conditioned compact beds are fully closed and have charging points.

Senior Divisional Commercial Manager, Bengaluru division, Krishna Chaitanya told TNIE, "We have just issued contracts for setting up state-of-the-art sleeping pods at two stations in our division, to offer a new hospitality experience to passengers. Apart from adding amenities at the station, we stand to earn an annual revenue of Rs 8.9 lakh from the contract at KSR Bengaluru City, and Rs 9.8 lakh from SMVT." The pods would come up on 250 sqft, and will be installed in the concourse area at the main entrance of KSR Station, and above the booking office at SMVT.

Both contracts have been awarded to Brandmidas Hospitality and Aviation Services Private Limited through open e-auction as a non-fare revenue contract, he said. "The model, if successful, will be replicated at major stations in Bengaluru division," Chaitanya added.

The Indian Railway Catering and Tourism Corporation Limited operates such sleeping pods at New Delhi and Mumbai railway stations.

Preeth Chengappa, director and chief operating officer of the agency, which has installed such pods at Chennai and Tirupati airports, said their sleeping zones were named 'Sleepzzzo'. "We will launch them at both stations by February-end or early March. We plan to have four pods at KSR Station and six at SMVT Station initially. Based on demand, they would be scaled up. The rates are still being finalised but they will be friendly on the pocket," he said.

They have some space for baggage but heavy luggage needs to be placed in cloak rooms, the director added.

03RD February : It's Saturday – Saturn's Day. Traditionally Saturn is always regarded as a planet of hard work, yet in some parts of the world, like Europe and America, Saturday has become a day off work. It's also considered a difficult planet for relationships yet, in the western world, most people get married on Saturday! Perhaps they should take astrology more seriously, like we do in India!

ARIES
(Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
Nobody knows better than you that sometimes it really does take an enormous amount of energy to walk away from unpleasant situations. However, disagreeable encounters must now be defused with wisdom and restraint. If you tackle a long-standing moral question, you'll find that your views have changed.

TAURUS
(Apr. 21 - May 21)
You may now be forced to differentiate between what you think you need and what is really good for you. It may be that your expectations of what a particular person can contribute to your life are completely unrealistic. And, in that case, leave controversial questions until next week.

GEMINI
(May 22 - June 21)
Your own emotional well-being will be enhanced and strengthened by giving partners the support and guidance they need. Please do not allow vague fears or imaginings to disturb your equilibrium. You see, much of what happens this week will appear to be much bigger in your imagination than it really is.

CANCER
(June 22 - July 23)
It's because of the twists and turns of the slow-moving planet Saturn that you may begin to worry about current responsibilities. There seems to be little to concern you, though, as a partner's loyalty is not in question. Top priority for this weekend - don't sacrifice your own interests. It may not be worth it.

LEO
(July 24 - Aug. 23)
You should not be reluctant to air grievances, even though partners are initially likely to turn a deaf ear if you raise issues such as your hopes at work or your desires and needs at home. However, if you persevere, you are likely to get your ideas across eventually.

VIRGO
(Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
Your loyalty and devotion are not in question, but you must realise that you can set yourself free without necessarily letting anybody down. What you are aiming for is a relationship based on mutual trust rather than dependency. And that has to be a noble ideal.

LIBRA
(Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
You are far too knowledgeable and astute to give way without first making it clear to everybody that you know you are right. You may, though, still have to count the cost of a financial blunder. Never mind - you have unlimited time to make up for it!

SCORPIO
(Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
A particular emotional tie or attachment is now more important than you, or indeed friends, realise. You may make your feelings plain, so that other people may respond on a level which you find more satisfying and meaningful. Cash questions now require one hundred and ten percent care and attention if you're not to throw your money down a black hole.

SAGITTARIUS
(Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
There is something strangely disturbing going on, but you just can't put your finger on what is wrong. In fact, it is planetary activity around the mysterious sectors of your solar chart which is confusing you. Wait until life settles down again, perhaps until next week.

CAPRICORN
(Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
With a group of planets conspiring to awaken your creative aspirations, someone, or something, must now fire your imagination, encouraging you to spread your wings and liberate yourself from the past. You will eventually discover that you were right all along.

AQUARIUS
(Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
You are now entitled to go into battle and fight for what you believe to be your rights. What is due to you now is recognition for all you have done for family members and all the effort you have put into home improve-ments. You must, though, acknowledge that partners may be equally convinced that they are right.

PISCES
(Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
What you must do now is pay your dues, honour past commitments and do what you know is proper. Then nobody will be able to get the better of you or imply that you have not done your best. You're a disciplined person in many ways, much more so than many people believe, and therein lies the key to your success.

Cops extort ₹5L from accused, face probe

Sarjapur, Hebbagodi cops allegedly involved; victim approached Lokayukta in December 2023

MOHAMMED YACOOB @ Bengaluru

POLICE personnel attached to Sarjapur and Hebbagodi police stations are in the dock for allegedly extorting Rs 5 lakh from an accused, against whom his wife had filed a case under the SC/ST (Prevention of Atrocities) Act.

A 31-year-old resident of Munnekolalu in Marathahalli, the victim works for an IT company. His wife had filed a case of domestic violence and cheating against him with the Sarjapura police in January 2023. It is alleged that, on the pretext of investigation, Prabhu, a crime staff attached to the Sarjapur police station, made him visit the station multiple times. Prabhu allegedly snatched the phone from the victim and transferred Rs 50,000 to a third party through a UPI-based app. But the next day, he returned it as it would be an evidence against him.

Further, it is alleged that another constable, identified as Lakshmi Kanth, from Sarjapur station also demanded money from him for arranging a cab to take him to the court. The accused, who was released on bail, was again summoned by the then Deputy Superintendent of Police (DySP) of Anekal subdivision to appear for the inquiry. During these visits, Vasu, a writer at Hebbagodi station, allegedly threatened to implicate his entire family in a false case and allegedly extorted Rs 5 lakh.

When the victim approached DySP Lakshmi Narayana and Sarjapura Inspector Manjunath SS, they allegedly did not respond to his pleas. He decided to approach the Lokayukta and filed a complaint in December 2023. Also, he forwarded the copy of the complaint to Bengaluru Rural SP, based on which an inquiry is initiated.

Additional Superintendent of Police ML Purushotham said he has summoned the police staff and recorded their statements. The statement of DySP Lakshmi Narayan, who is transferred, is yet to be recorded, he added. When TNIE contacted Prabhu, Vasu and Lakshmi Kanth, they denied the allegations and stated that they have recorded their statements before the additional SP.

Speed bump: Kin of victim demand action

FAMILY members of the deceased who lost their lives due to 'unscientific' speed breakers on Bogadi Road near the southern entrance gate of Manasagangotri, demanded legal action against officials of the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) who are responsible for these deaths.

Speaking to reporters on Friday, Rajendra Prasad, the father of 27-year-old Yashwanth who lost his life due to 'unscientific' speed breakers a few days ago, said that Yashwanth was their only son. Demanding legal action against the MCC officers who were involved in the construction of the humps, Prasad stated that he did not want any such negligence to be repeated by the authorities

"If no action is initiated against the officers, I will commit suicide with my family. The government must also provide a job to the young widow of my son," he said.

Scribe promises job to nurse, assaults her

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Madikeri

GONIKOPPAL police are on the lookout for a journalist who is accused of assaulting a hospital nurse. The assault case was reported at Gonikoppal Community Hospital late Wednesday night.

Nagesh D, a journalist associated with a local channel in Kodagu, is the accused. As sources confirmed, the accused visited the Gonikoppal Community Hospital at midnight. Covering his face with a mask and allegedly threatening the hospital staff stating that he is a journalist, the accused tried to assault a hospital nurse. A video shot by one of the hospital staff, revealed that he also tried to attack another hospital staff who came to the rescue of the aggrieved nurse.

Nurse files complaint

While a police complaint was delayed in the case, a complaint was later filed following instructions from DHO Satish Kumar. The aggrieved nurse filed a complaint against Nagesh on Thursday.

The complainant stated that she was offered a job as a news anchor by the accused who promised to pay her a monthly salary of Rs 10,000. However, he took the victim's gold jewels as an initial investment to secure the job in the channel.

When the victim asked him to return the jewels, he tried to assault her and even barged into the hospital where she was employed.

Police sources confirmed that the accused journalist is in possession of eight SIM cards and they are trying to trace him. Nagesh has been absconding after the video went viral. Meanwhile, the journalist associations in the district have condemned the behaviour of the accused and further actions will be initiated to suspend him from the associations.

MENTORING PRACTICES

Parents' role crucial in shaping mental health

RISHITA KHANNA @ Bengaluru

IN today's fast-paced world of technology and changing parenting styles, discussions around mental health have shifted focus. Understanding and promoting well-being, particularly among the children and teens now revolves around the intersection of digital advancement and parenting practices. The impact of digital technologies on mental health is significant as screens are becoming omnipresent in our lives. The way technology is integrated into parenting is crucial in shaping the mental well-being of a child, said Dr Neha Cadabam, Psychologist and Executive Director at Cadabams Hospital.

Talking to TNIE on changing dynamics of screen-time and evolving parenting techniques, Dr Neha said that the evolving dynamics between technology and parenting is at the forefront of conversations about mental health. This shift prompts a closer examination of how screens influence the psychological landscape, marking a profound and complex connection between our digital lives and mental wellbeing.

"With technology and affordable internet becoming easily accessible, children inadvertently encounter content beyond their age. Furthermore, busy parents, whether part of the working class or not, tend to perceive their child's screen time as the time to complete their own chores, which unknowingly leads to lack of monitoring by parents. This often leads to children growing up prematurely," Dr Neha said.

Shruti, a 31-year-old homemaker says, "I have observed that my son is extremely addicted to his phone and disconnected from his surroundings. We need to find ways to nurture healthy minds without letting screens overshadow our lives. Establishing boundaries, introducing screen-free time, and openly discussing online content is crucial today."

Emphasising on the need to monitor children's screen time, Dr Neha said that in the absence of proper monitoring of child's screen time, they tend to assume that internet consumption is unlimited, and without intervention. Parents must have a healthy monitoring approach, without making the child feel that they are doing anything wrong.

CRIME PATROL

Man robbed of Rs 15 lakh in broad daylight

Bengaluru: A cigarette supplier was pepper sprayed and robbed at gunpoint of Rs 15 lakh in Nagarabhavi on Thursday. The victim, Gopal, is an agent for a cigarette distributing agency. At 1.10pm, he was outside a cigarette shop of one Nathuram in Papareddy Palya when 3 miscreants accosted him. One of them threatened Gopal at gunpoint, another used a pepper spray on him while the third cut the strap of the cash bag with a machete. "The incident happened within 30 seconds. The victim had come to my shop to deliver cigarettes. The incident happened outside my shop. All the accused were wearing helmets. Two of them had machetes. They escaped on the scooter with the bag," Nathuram said.

Student hit and dragged by BMTC bus, dies

Bengaluru: A 20-year-old engineering student died on the spot when a speeding BMTC bus rammed her two-wheeler near Devaiah Park in Malleswaram traffic police limits on Friday morning. Kusumitha, a resident of Malleswaram, was a second-year student at an engineering college on Mysuru Road. Around 8.30 am, she was riding to the Srirampura Metro station to take a train to her college when the bus mowed her down. "The bus dragged the two-wheeler for several metres before stopping. Even though she did not come under the wheels of the bus, she succumbed to injuries," police said. The bus driver has been arrested and the vehicle seized.

BJP DEMANDS SURESH'S DISQUALIFICATION

Saffron party MLC terms MP's remarks irresponsible and anti-India

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

CONGRESS MP DK Suresh's remarks on the demand for a separate state for Southern states landed the Grand Old Party in a tight spot, as the BJP continued its tirade against Deputy Chief Minister DK Shivakumar's younger brother and sought his disqualification from Lok Sabha. A complaint has also been filed against him by a BJP leader in Dakshina Kannada.

BJP MLC Chaluvadi Narayanswamy has written to the Lok Sabha Speaker, seeking the disqualification of the Bengaluru Rural MP from the Lok Sabha. The BJP legislator termed the MP's remarks as irresponsible and anti-India. "Suresh has breached the oath of office which was administered by the Speaker and also violated Constitutional norms and proprieties," the BJP MLC said.

Reacting to the Union Interim Budget on Thursday, the Congress MP had stated that the money collected from the Southern states is being given to North Indian states, and if it continues, they will be forced to demand a separate country.

Meanwhile, a private complaint has been lodged by a BJP leader from Dakshina Kannada against Suresh. BJP leader Vikas P lodged a complaint with JMFC Court in Mangaluru and also to Mangaluru North police, claiming that the statement by the MP has hurt his feelings and demanded action against him under Section 124A (Sedition) of the Indian Penal Code (IPC).

Later speaking to reporters, he said Suresh had given an anti-national statement and despite being an MP, he has conspired to divide India. "We have urged the Mangaluru City police commissioner and Mangaluru North police, as well as the court, to take necessary action against him. He has shown disrespect to the Indian Constitution by instigating the separatist forces to divide the nation. There is no difference between Suresh and separatists. We have complete confidence in our judiciary and the next hearing of the case will be on February 7," he said.

It's a personal view: Minister

Labour Minister Santosh Lad said that spending the revenue generated by the South Indian states for the progress of the North Indian states was very much true. The contribution of Southern states to the country's GDP was high, but they were not getting enough funds in the tax devolution, especially since 2014 after the BJP-led NDA assumed office and the same has been reiterated by Suresh. "However, what Suresh has said about a separate country is his personal opinion and he should be asked that," he added. He accused the BJP leaders of exaggerating Suresh's remarks.

STAND FOR COUNTRY'S UNITY: CM

HOSAPETE: Reacting to Bengaluru Rural MP DK Suresh's controversial remark, Chief Minister Siddaramaiah said he (Suresh) has not said anything with the intention of dividing the nation. "We strongly advocate the unity of the country. Instead of discussing the role of the Budget in addressing the problems of farmers, the poor and the unemployed, the BJP members are raising this issue in Parliament," he charged. Siddaramaiah said that due to the drought situation, even the Hampi Utsav was postponed. ENS

THE state used to get a share of 4.71 per cent as per the 14th Finance Commission which has been reduced to 3.64 per cent in the 15th Finance Commission causing a big loss to the state, Shivakumar pointed out.

Despite Siddaramaiah meeting Prime Minister Narendra Modi and Home Minister Amit Shah, the Centre has not released even a paisa to the state to tackle drought. It also turned down the state's request to increase the number of mandays under MGNREGA from 100 to 150, he said.

He urged legislators from opposition parties too to be part of the protest to seek justice for the state. "The size of the Union Budget was Rs 24.5 lakh crore in 2018-19 and it has doubled to Rs 45 lakh crore in 2023-24. But the state hasn't benefited from this jump. The grants to Karnataka have only gone up a little, from Rs 46,000 crore in 2018-19 to Rs 50,000 crore in 2022-23," he analysed.

Karnataka is one of the most-progressive states in the country with the second highest tax contribution to the country's exchequer, but it got a raw deal in Thursday's interim budget. Though 27 of the 28 MPs from Karnataka are from BJP, they haven't been able to get justice for the state, he alleged.

"Budgetary allocations to Karnataka have come down by 40-45 per cent since 2018-19, increasing the debt burden on the state," he said.w

Govt has enough funds for development: CM to BJP

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Vijayapura

REFUTING allegations of the BJP, Chief Minister Siddaramaiah asserted that the state government has adequate funds for development works.

Speaking after launching several development projects in Muddebihal taluk on Friday, the CM said the BJP is spreading canards on the state's financial status.

"Today, we have launched development works to the tune of Rs 227 crore. Where did this amount come from, if the government lacked funds? Since we have launched development works, it has proved that the BJP is telling liea and misleading people," he said.

Stating that the government has implemented all five guarantee schemes within seven months of coming to power, Siddaramaiah said it shows that the government has met all the promises made during the election.

Prime Minister Narendra Modi had declared that the implementation of guarantee schemes will drastically affect the financial condition of the state. "Our government has not only implemented the guarantees, but also kept the financial condition under check," Siddaramaiah said.

He claimed that while last year, the government spent around Rs 38,000 crore for implementing its five guarantees, this year, it plans to spend Rs 58,000 crore. He said the objective of implementing the schemes was only to increasing purchasing power of the people, who are already suffering from price rise.

Opining that the caste system is responsible for discrimination, he said that 12th century social reformer Basaveshwara and his contemporaries tried to create a society that did not discriminate people on the basis of caste.

Referring to the government recently declaring Basaveshwara as the 'Cultural Leader of Karnataka ', Siddaramaiah said it was not done with an intention to gain political advantage, but to recognise the efforts of Basaveshwara in creating a society of equality.

BJP toppling elected govts, says Siddu

ENS @ Vijayapura

Chief Minister Siddaramaiah on Friday criticised the BJP for its alleged attempts to destabilise elected governments through unethical means.

Addressing the media in Muddebihal town, before attending a programme to launch development projects, he accused the BJP of resorting to operations like purchasing MLAs to gain majority support, stating that such actions undermine the trust of the people. Responding to remarks by BJP leaders, including state president BY Vijayendra and former CM Jagadish Shettar, claiming support from Congress members, Siddaramaiah highlighted historical instances where BJP leaders have attempted to buy MLAs.

He emphasised that the Congress has consistently come to power based on the trust and judgement of the people, contrasting BJP's alleged methods of forming government through "Operation Kamala".

Siddaramaiah also addressed recent controversies surrounding the hoisting of a Hanuman flag at Keragoudu gram panchayat in Mandya.

The chief minister said the organisers had obtained permission to hoist only the Tricolour and Karnataka flag, but they hoisted the saffron flag instead.

He criticised the BJP for disrespecting the Tricolour by hoisting unauthorised flags, stating that the former symbolises the identity of all Indians.

BJP core committee meets for poll talk

BENGALURU: The BJP Karnataka core committee members met on Friday to discuss poll-related matters. After the meeting, senior leader CT Ravi told reporters that in the days ahead, Karnataka would see many elections including to the Council, Lok Sabha and Rajya Sabha. He said they will discuss potential candidates for these polls and state president BY Vijayendra will discuss the same with national president JP Nadda. Besides, leaders, including MLAs and MLCs, are going to protest near the Gandhi statue at Vidhana Soudha, against the state government's anti-farmers policies, which led to compensation not being given to drought-affected farmers.

Somanna meets HDK, prepares to fight from Tumakuru LS seat

DEVARAJ B HIREHALLI
@ Bengaluru

FORMER minister V Somanna is tipped to be the BJP-JDS alliance candidate from Tumakuru for the forthcoming Lok Sabha polls. He started meeting key leaders and called on JDS state chief and former chief minister H D Kumaraswamy recently, ahead of the latter calling on central BJP leaders in New Delhi to finalise seat sharing between the BJP and JDS.

"We discussed a lot of things and I am humbled by H D Kumaraswamy's gesture," Somanna said, indirectly claiming that Kumaraswamy has promised support for his candidature.

Somanna also started his temple tour by visiting religious heads, starting with Kadasiddeshwara Mutt in Nonavinakere near Tiptur, and Gubbi Channabasaveshwara temple. To take OBC communities into confidence, he called on Kuruba religious head Sri Eshwaranandapuri Swami in Bengaluru on Wednesday. The swami has some influence in parts of Tumakuru as he has also established a mutt branch at Siddharabetta in Koratagere assembly constituency.

Interestingly, Somanna held a convention to mark the inauguration of 'Guru Bhavana' at Siddaganga Mutt, where Home Minister Dr G Parameshwara and Cooperation Minister K N Rajanna praised him as a good leader.

Somanna, a Veerashaiva Lingayat leader, was sulking after former CM B S Yediyurappa's son B Y Vijayendra was appointed state party chief. He had alleged that father and son had worked against him in Varuna and Chamarajanagar in the 2023 assembly polls, leading to his loss from both seats.

Recently, he met Union Home Minister Amit Shah and BJP national president J P Nadda, and sought to be nominated to the Rajya Sabha. The high command suggested that he contest the Lok Sabha polls and assured him that Yediyurappa and Vijayendra will not wage a cold war any more, sources said.

Sitting BJP MP G S Basavaraju, who is retiring from electoral politics, is backing Somanna as the latter had worked for him in the 2019 LS polls, when he had defeated former PM H D Deve Gowda. Yediyurappa and Vijayendra have pushed former minister JC Madhuswamy's name for Tumakuru seat. "The people will not forget the way Somanna had attacked Yediyurappa, and will teach him a lesson," a BJP leader remarked.

NO OBJECTION WITH CANDIDATURE: BYV

BJP state chief Vijayendra clarified that he has no objection to Somanna's candidature, as he is a senior leader. "If the party high command approves his candidature, we have no objection, but the high command and senior leaders will discuss and come to a decision," he told reporters. Central leaders will finalise the candidates after collecting the opinion of party workers.

Cong has opened commission counters: BYV

ENS @ Bengaluru

A day after senior Congress leader B Shivaram said there is rampant corruption in the current state government, BJP state chief BY Vijayendra said that ever since the Grand Old Party came to power, there have been no development works. The party has opened commission counters everywhere to draw money just like ATMs, he alleged.

Sharing his thoughts on social media, Vijayendra said Shivaram has opened details of corruption practices in the present government. "Earlier, the Congress had levelled baseless allegations of 40 per cent commission against the BJP government. But now, the Congress government is indulging in rampant corruption," he said.

Further, Vijayendra said the Congress government has stopped development and pro-people works. "Instead of taking up these issues, they have started practising corruption at every level. Looks like they have opened an ATM model to avail commission and it is high time that people slam this corrupt government," he stated.

On Friday, When asked by reporters in Bengaluru about "the percentage of commission the Congress is charging", Shivaram said when BJP was the ruling dispensation, it started with the contractors association raising the issue of 40 per cent commission. "We also won on the same propaganda," he said.

"Now in the present government, we cannot say about the percentage of commission since no development work has taken place. Money will flow only when there is development work. Now, commission and corruption might not be happening in a big way, but it is happening in transfers," he said.

Poll platter: CM, ministers discuss strategy over dinner

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

CHIEF Minister Siddaramaiah on Friday hosted a dinner for his cabinet colleagues at his residence on Thursday, where they discussed the strategy to win more seats for the Congress in the Lok Sabha polls.

Since the 2024 general election is crucial for both the CM and DCM DK Shivakumar to prove their mettle and keep the power positions intact, the two leaders held deliberations in detail with the ministers, who were given charge of different LS constituencies in the state. The meeting was part of a strategy of the CM and DCM to take their ministers into confidence and iron out the differences among them, ahead of the polls, a leader informed TNIE.

Issues such as controversial statements made by Congress leaders that have damaged the party's image were also discussed and the ministers were asked to take MLAs into confidence, he added. The leaders were asked not to touch upon those issues that strike a chord with people's sentiments. In the wake of the BJP taking the consecration of the Ram Mandir in Ayodhya to its advantage, Siddaramaiah discussed the strategy to tackle the saffron party.

Both Siddaramaiah and Shivakumar gave instructions to the ministers to take the initiative to select candidates who fit the bill, and also to induct from other parties, who have a fair chance of winning.

JDS files PIL on 'K'taka model' of poll corruption

ENS @ Bengaluru

THE Karnataka High Court issued notice to the Election Commission of India (ECI), State Election Commission and Union government on a public interest litigation filed by JDS Youth Wing president Nikhil Kumar K and three others, seeking direction to the ECI to take stringent measures immediately, in addition to the Model Code of Conduct, for the Lok Sabha elections. The PIL seeks to curb innovative and ingenious methods and corrupt practices, and ensure that the 'Karnataka model' of purchase of votes for gift cards is not followed, as was done during the Karnataka Legislative Assembly elections.

A division bench of Acting Chief Justice P S Dinesh Kumar and Justice T G Shivashankare Gowda issued notice after hearing the petition filed by Gautham Gowda M, Prasad K R, former Magadi MLA A Manjunath and Nikhil Kumar K, seeking direction for 'bribe-free' elections in India.

Pointing out that Ramanagara Congress MLA H A Iqbal Hussain defended the issue of gift cards as an election strategy, the petitioners prayed to court to direct the ECI to act on the representation dated July 12, 2023, submitted by them concerning corrupt practices during the assembly elections.

Clarifying that this petition is not concerned with the irrational freebies in the state, the petitioners alleged there were large-scale violations and corrupt practices in more than 42 assembly constituencies, including Ramanagara, Magadi, Kunigal, Mandya and Bengaluru.

JDS Youth Wing president Nikhil Kumaraswamy holds out a complaint letter against Congress MLA HC Balakrishna in Bengaluru on Friday | EXPRESS

JDS WANTS ACTION AGAINST BALAKRISHNA

BENGALURU: The JDS has lodged a complaint with the Chief Electoral Officer, Karnataka, against Magadi Congress MLA HC Balakrishna for allegedly "blackmailing" people of rolling back the ruling party's guarantees, if people do not vote for its candidates. JDS Youth Wing president Nikhil Kumaraswamy and others lodged the complaint, alleging that "by saying that its guarantees would be rolled back, if the people do not vote for the Congress in the general election, is not short of blackmail, and this is also in violation of the Model Code of Conduct". They urged the CEO to take action. In their complaint, they have stated that Balakrishna's statement is in violation of the Representation of the People Act, 1951, and the CEO can take action against him and his party. Speaking to reporters after lodging the complaint, Nikhil alleged that such statements from the MLA cannot be made, without the consent of CM Siddaramaiah or senior party leader Rahul Gandhi.

Beware of hate speech online over Keragodu, FIRs will be filed, warns DC

ENS @ Mandya

IN order to prevent violence between groups over sensitive issues like the recent clash over removal of a Hanuman flag in Keragodu, Deputy Commissioner Kumar and Superintendent of Police N Yatish on Friday warned that legal action will be initiated against those who try to disturb peace in society.

In a public notice issued on Friday, DC Kumar and SP Yatish stated that an FIR will be lodged against those persons who upload photos, videos, posters, make hate speeches or statements on social media platforms like X, Facebook, WhatsApp, Instagram, YouTube etc.

"Legal action will be initiated against those persons who upload posters or videos or make hate speeches on social network sites," the notice said.

Meanwhile, Mandya Zilla Panchayat CEO Shaikh Tanveer Asif said miscreants are spreading false messages online, that orders have been given to remove the dhwaja sthamba erected in front of the Rangamandira in Keragodu. "There has been no order issued to remove the dhwaja stambha, and the public does not believe the false messages spread on social media," he said.

However, the BJP on its official X account slammed the Congress, stating that the government has threatened to lodge an FIR against people using social media to express their anger against the incident. It said the government is functioning like a 'Tughlaq darbar'.

"CM Siddaramaiah government which has triggered violence is now using police force to hide their mistakes. The government has murdered the truth and projected false as the truth. CM Siddaramaiah government has failed to follow the Constitution given by Dr BR Ambedkar. The Congress had always subdued the freedom of speech and rejected the opinions of the people," the BJP stated.

To stay in TS capital to prevent alleged poaching by rivals, will return before floor test

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Hyderabad

MINUTES after Champai Soren, leader of Jharkhand Mukti Morcha (JMM), took oath as the chief minister of Jharkhand on Friday, MLAs from the JMM, Congress and Rashtriya Janata Dal (RJD) coalition headed to Hyderabad to prevent any possible poaching. As the JMM's alliance partner Congress is in power in Telangana, it appears that the coalition considers Hyderabad as a safe haven to shift its MLAs.

Telangana Transport Minister Ponnam Prabhakar, AICC Telangana in-charge Deepa Dasmunshi, AICC secretary SA Sampath Kumar and the state government's adviser on protocol affairs Harkara Venugopal received the Jharkhand MLAs when their chartered flights landed at the Begumpet airport.

Sources said that a total of 43 MLAs reached Hyderabad, with separate in-charges assigned by TPCC for groups of four to five MLAs. However, the exact number of MLAs being hosted by the Congress in Hyderabad remains undisclosed.

When contacted, Deepa Das Munshi said: "The new government has been formed. Jharkhand is together, there is absolutely nothing to worry about."

Speaking to TNIE, Ponnam Prabhakar confirmed that the MLAs will be in the city until the floor test in Jharkhand Assembly.

Immediately after they landed in Hyderabad, the MLAs were shifted amidst tight security to a private resort located on the outskirts of the city where they will stay until the floor test.

Earlier in the day, Prabhakar was on his way to attend Chief Minister A Revanth Reddy's Punarnirmana Sabha in Adilabad district. However, he returned midway to Hyderabad to oversee the arrangements for the Jharkhand MLAs sojourn.

It may be mentioned here that Champai Soren took oath as the Jharkhand chief minister, replacing Hemant Soren who was arrested by the Enforcement Directorate (ED) in connection with an alleged money laundering case.

Arif gives ultimatum to name panel nominees

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Thiruvananthapuram

KERALA Governor Arif Mohammed Khan has issued an ultimatum to vice-chancellors of eight universities to propose within a month the nominees of their respective varsities to the search committees to choose permanent VCs.

The governor is learnt to have told the vice-chancellors that he would go ahead and constitute the search committees on his own if the varsities do not propose their nominee to the search panel. The governor's direction has gone to the vice-chancellors of the following universities - Kerala, MG, Kannur, Malayalam, Cusat, Technological University, Agriculture and Fisheries.

Khan's recent move is on the basis of a Supreme Court verdict that upheld his authority as chancellor in the matters of the university.

Meanwhile, the vice-chancellor of the University of Kerala has directed the Registrar to convene a meeting of the varsity senate on February 16 to select a nominee to the search panel. Khan had earlier nominated a few persons, allegedly with right-wing leanings, to the Senate.

The quorum for convening the Senate meeting can be mustered if Khan's nominees and UDF-backed Senate members choose to attend it. However, there are chances that the governor's nominees to the Senate would be prevented from attending the meeting, as was seen in Calicut University.

If this happens, CPM-backed senate members will be able to indefinitely delay proposing a Senate nominee and also undermine Khan's move to constitute the search committee.

Unicef, govt use youth power to save water

BOSKY KHANNA @Bengaluru

THE United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund (Unicef) has undertaken a programme in 12 water districts and two cities of Karnataka to conserve water.

In the pilot programme 'Save Water', youth in the 14-29 year age group are being trained, who are in turn training and educating people in water conservation. The youth are being made 'master trainers'.

The three-year long pilot programme started in December 2023. In the past one-and-half months, 90,000 youths have been trained; who have trained and reached out to 1.75 lakh people and saved 1.75 cubic metres of water. An app has also been created, where they upload details of their work.

The programme is undertaken along with the Youth Services and Sports department, and Shri Kshethra Dharmasthala Rural Development Project (SKDRDP).

The 12 districts and two urban local bodies where the programme is being undertaken are Bagalkot, Bidar, Belagavi, Chikkaballapur, Chitradurga, Gadag, Kolar, Koppal, Raichur, Tumakuru, Vijayapura, Yadgir, Bengaluru (Rural and Urban) and Hubballi- Dharwad (urban).

The programme aims to engage 4 lakh direct volunteers who will reach out to 16 lakh people and save around 18.5 million cubic metres of water in 3 years, said Venkatesh Aralikatty, Water, Sanitation and Hygiene Specialist, Unicef, Hyderabad field office.

LH Manjunath, executive director, SKDRP, said, "The programme is designed to save water at individual level. The focus is on youth, as they are sensitive and carry the message."

K'taka SP held for assaulting colleague in TN

ENS @Erode

A Superintendent of Police attached to the internal security division of Karnataka was arrested on Wednesday by Erode police for allegedly assaulting a woman assistant sub inspector of police, also from Karnataka. He secured bail from a local court.

According to sources in Erode police, M Arun Rangarajan (38), an IPS officer from Gobichettipalayam, serves in the internal security division at Dharwad. K Sujatha (38) of Kalaburagi, works as assistant sub inspector in the division, and currently is on leave.

She lodged a complaint with Gobichettipalayam police on Jan 31, alleging that Arun had tied a mangala sutra to her two years ago in a temple and that he had assaulted her on Tuesday (Jan 30) during an argument. "On January 27, Arun brought Sujatha to his home in Gobichettipalayam. On January 30, they went to the Srirangam temple and an argument broke out between them. They continued to quarrel after reaching home. It was then that Arun allegedly assaulted her," police said.

Early on January 31, Sujatha was admitted in the Gobichettipalayam GH by neighbours. Later, she was transferred to a private hospital. Sujatha lodged a complaint regarding the incident. Police booked a case against Arun under Sections 294 (b), 323, 324 of the IPC and Section 4 of the TNPWH Act, and arrested him on Jan 31.

DSP V Thangavel said "Arun is a divorcee and his marriage to Sujatha is not legal as she had filed for divorce from her first husband. The case is pending in court."

Kharge's '400 paar' jibe at Goyal triggers uproar in Upper House

'Not Cong stance'

Rajya Sabha witnessed heated debates over Congress MP DK Suresh's statement for a separate south nation over the alleged fiscal injustice. Kharge, distancing from the statement, said he and his party stand for a united nation and will not tolerate any such call. He also lashed out at Assam CM Himanta Biswa Sarma for his post on X.

CONGRESS chief and leader of the Opposition Mallikarjun Kharge prevailed upon the treasury benches in the Rajya Sabha on Friday with his satirical speech on the ruling BJP's claim to win over 400 seats in the upcoming parliamentary polls.

It all started when Union minister Piyush Goyal demanded an apology from the Congress for a controversial statement by party MP DK Suresh. Kharge stood up to comment the BJP claims to cross 400 seats.

Kharge's remark that 'aap (BJP) to iss bar bolta abki baar 400 paar'(BJP says it will cross 400 seats in LS polls) evoked laughter among members of treasury benches, including PM Modi and leader of the House Piyush Goyal, who were participating in the debate on the motion of thanks to the President's address.

Kharge attacked the Modi government on women's security, reservation and the delay by Jharkhand governor in administrating oath to Champai Soren. "You have a majority with 330-34, but you still claim to go over 400 seats," Kharge said. This prompted Goyal to quip, "Whatever Kharge ji said is true."

Later, the BJP in its X handle tagged a video clip of Kharge on "400 paar" jibe.

The Rajya Sabha witnessed heated exchanges over Congress MP DK Suresh statement for a separate south nation over the alleged fiscal injustice. Kharge, distancing the party from his colleague, said he and his party (Congress) stand for a united nation and will not tolerate any such call. Kharge also lashed out at Assam CM, albeit indirectly on Himanta Biswas Sarma's post on X. He said CMs like him should be removed for speaking such a language.

Meanwhile, Goyal lashed out at Suresh's statement. Suresh is the brother of Karnataka Deputy CM DK Shivakumar. "The Congress has in the past divided the nation. The latest statement is an example of the same thinking".

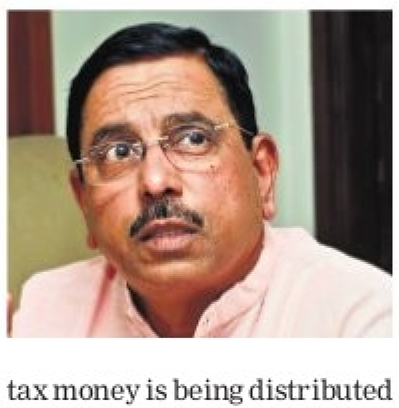
Tharoor's rebuttal

Congress MP Shashi Tharoor said that Joshi has raised an issue that has nothing to do with the House. "It was not a statement made in the House. Secondly, he did so based on media reports that were not verified," Tharoor asked.



THE row over Congress MP DK Suresh's remarks on a "separate nation" snowballed into a political slugfest on Friday, with the BJP demanding a probe into the matter by Lok Sabha Ethics Committee.

Raising the issue during the Zero Hour in Lok Sabha, Parliamentary Affairs Minister Pralhad Joshi requested Speaker Om Birla that the case should be referred to the Ethics Committee. He also demanded an apology from Congress leader Sonia Gandhi over Suresh's remarks.

Later, speaking to this paper, Joshi said that though the comment was made outside the House, it needs to be treated seriously as it is against the Constitution. "I have requested the Lok Sabha Speaker to refer it to the Ethics Committee as the MP remarked about dividing the country. It was an insult to the Constitution and its architect Babasaheb Ambedkar. Will wait for the Speaker's response," he said.

Suresh, an MP from Bangalore Rural, had on Thursday, while commenting on the interim budget, said that injustice was meted out to southern states while allocating the share of tax collection. "Our tax money is being distributed in north India. If we don't condemn it, there might arise a situation where we will have to demand a separate nation," he had said.

In a rebuttal to Joshi's comments, Congress MP Shashi Tharoor said that the Joshi has raised an issue that has nothing to do with the House.

"What the minister did was unparliamentary on two grounds. First, he raised an issue that has nothing to do with the House. It was not a statement made in the House. Secondly, he did so based on media reports that were not verified. Neither of those are admissible in the House... Why was the minister allowed to misuse the time of the House in this manner?" Tharoor said.

Members of the opposition INDIA bloc, including the Congress and the DMK, later walked out for a brief while.

GOVT TRYING TO WEAKEN OPPN: GOGOI

Congress leader Gaurav Gogoi on Friday accused the BJP government of trying to weaken the Opposition. "The government wants to weaken the Opposition. Sends IT, CBI, ED on us. I want to tell him that we are not scared," Gogoi said. He said that now there are different rules for the opposition; while the Bihar CM was sworn in overnight, in Jharkhand they were asked to wait for 10 days.

'EXISTING LAW PROTECTS DOCTORS'

The existing laws have provisions to protect doctors from violence, Union health minister Mansukh Mandaviya said in Lok Sabha on Friday. He was responding to a query by Congress leader Shashi Tharoor, who sought a legislation to protect doctors and healthcare workers from violence at the workplace. Mandaviya added that that doctors are considered gods and their protection is important.

GOVT COMMITTED TO WELFARE OF TRIBALS: MUNDA

Union minister Arjun Munda on Friday asserted that the government is committed to the welfare of tribals whose lives depend on forest produce and is already providing price support to around 80 such items. Replying to a private member bill — The Sal Leaves Collectors And Traders' Welfare Bill, 2022 — in Rajya Sabha, tribal affairs minister Munda said it is not feasible to bring a law to provide support for each individual forest produce. He, however, assured that Centre is willing to consider how to improve the lives of sal leaf collectors and traders.

'Military personnel to be replaced in Maldives in phases'

YESHI SELI @ New Delhi

INDIA has agreed to "replace" its military personnel in Male in a phased manner, the Maldivian government said on Friday.

"Both sides agreed that the Indian government will replace the military personnel in one of the three aviation platforms by March 10 and the other two by May 10," said a press release issued by the Maldivian government after the second India-Maldives high-level core group meeting in Delhi.

There is no clarity on whether the Indian military men will be replaced by civilian operators or by a fresh lot of military personnel.

"It is a work in progress, so there will be a third meeting in Male to take this further. There isn't much that will change for now," according to a source.

India and the Maldives are working on a solution wherein aviation operations can continue. "The mutually workable solutions will enable continued operations of Indian aviation platforms that provide humanitarian and medevac services to the people of Maldives," according to the Ministry of External Affairs.

> Both sides agreed that the Indian government will replace the military personnel in one of the three aviation platforms by March 10 and the other two by May 10
>
> Maldivian government

The meeting, composed of diplomats and military officials from both countries, discussed bilateral cooperation towards identifying steps to enhance partnership, which includes expediting the implementation of ongoing development cooperation projects.

It may be recalled that the newly elected President Mohamed Muizzu, on the second day after taking the oath, had said that Indian military personnel who are around 88 had to head back to India. The momentum built up after he returned from his official visit to China and set March 15 as a deadline for the men to withdraw.

Decide on termination of 6 women judges within 3 weeks: SC to MP HC

SUCHITRA KALYAN MOHANTY
@ New Delhi

THE Supreme Court on Friday directed the Madhya Pradesh High Court to decide within three weeks if it can reconsider its decision to terminate the services of six women judges.

A two-judge bench of the top court headed by Justice BV Nagarathna and also comprising Justice Sanjay Karol was hearing a suo motu writ petition initiated by it on the termination of the judges by the Madhya Pradesh government in June last year.

Justice Karol told the council, "You see, institutions do not have egos, only status. Convey our intentions to the high court."

If the high court reconsiders its decision, then the apex court will not pass any orders in the matter, Justice Nagarathna added.

Last month, the court notified the Registrar General of the Madhya Pradesh High Court in the suo motu case.

On January 12, the top court took suo motu cognisance of the decision of the Madhya Pradesh government, which had in its order terminated six women judges after it got a recommendation by the state high court finding their probation period unsatisfactory.

The six women judges whose services have been terminated are Sarita Chaudhary, Priya Sharma, Rachna Atulkar Joshi, Aditi Kumar Sharma, Sonakshi Joshi and Jyoti Barkhade.

The apex court had earlier appointed advocate Gaurav Agarwal as amicus curiae (Friend of the court), who will have to assist the court in the matter. No adverse remarks had been made about the performance of these former judicial officers by the administrative committee of the high court, he said.

Initially, the Madhya Pradesh HC had recommended the termination of the six women judges after it found that their probation period was unsatisfactory.

Acting on the recommendation of the MP HC, the State government also, in June 2023, had terminated their services.

Agarwal said three of the six former judicial officers, who had approached the top court last year after their services were terminated, had moved the high court against their dismissal, and their petition is pending there.

He had informed the apex court that the plea filed in the top court was later withdrawn.

Plea for 'handcuff' poll symbol junked

A Public Interest Litigation on Friday sought that candidates with criminal backgrounds be given the election symbol of 'handcuffs'. "How can we pass orders in this plea? This is a policy matter. We can't ask the government to put election symbol of handcuff. You withdraw it," the three-judge bench told the petitioner.

Navy thwarts piracy bid in Gulf of Aden, 11 Iranian and 8 Pak nationals freed

MAYANK SINGH @ New Delhi

ON a day INS Sharda foiled yet another piracy attempt along the east coast of Somalia on Friday, the government said the Navy's regular deployment in the area has resulted in safety provided to over 3,000 ships and 25,000 seafarers since 2008.

"The ship has ensured the successful release of the crew (11 Iranian and 8 Pakistani nationals) members along with the boat," said the Navy. A few days back, the Indian warship INS Sumitra rescued 19 Pakistani crew of a fishing vessel after their Iranian-flagged fishing vessel was attacked by pirates on the east coast of Somalia.

It said information about the piracy attempt on the fishing Vessel FV Omari has been monitored since January 31. "The Naval Remotely Piloted Aircraft (RPA), undertaking surveillance in the area, successfully located FV Omari. INS Sharda deployed for an anti-piracy mission in the region was diverted to intercept the boat," said the Navy.

Seven pirates boarded FV Omari, an Iranian-flagged vessel, and took the crew as hostages. "The operation was successful as INS Sharda intercepted the vessel in the early hours of February 2 and used her integral boats to coerce the pirates for the safe release of the crew along with the vessel," said the Navy.

Meanwhile, Ajay Bhatt, Minister of State for Defence on Tuesday informed the Lok Sabha that since 2008, the Indian Navy has deployed units in the Gulf of Aden and the east coast of Africa towards anti-piracy patrols. "A total of 3,440 ships and over 25,000 seafarers have been safely escorted."

"Indian Navy units are regularly deployed on various missions in our areas of interest in the Indian Ocean Region (IOR) to enhance maritime security," said the minister. "Bilateral/multilateral maritime exercises, Joint Exclusive Economic Zone surveillance, coordinated patrols with friendly foreign countries are being undertaken to enhance security and countering non-traditional threats in an inclusive and cooperative manner," Bhatt said.

India saw 14L new cancer cases, 9L deaths: WHO

KAVITA BAJELI-DATT @ New Delhi

INDIA reported more than 14 lakh new cancer cases and over 9 lakh deaths due to the disease in 2022, according to the report of the International Agency for Research on Cancer, the cancer arm of World Health Organisation (WHO).

According to the report, breast and cervix cancers were the most frequent ones among Indian women, making up close to 27 and 18 per cent of the new cases respectively.

Among men, cancers of lip, oral cavity and lungs were the most common ones, accounting for 15.6, 8.5 and 12.4 per cent of the new cases.

It also calculated that the number of people alive within five years after a cancer diagnosis was about 32.6 lakh in India. The report said that while there were 14,13,316 cancer cases, there were 9,16,827 deaths.

WHO predicted over 35 million new cancer cases in 2050, a 77 per cent increase from the estimated 20 million cases in 2022, and that deaths will have nearly doubled since 2012 to more than 18 million.

The IARC said tobacco use, alcohol consumption, and obesity were key factors behind the increasing incidence of cancer, as well as population ageing and growth.

In India, the risk of developing cancer before turning 75 was calculated to be 10.6 per cent, while the risk of dying from cancer by the same age was found to be 7.2 per cent. Globally, these risks were 20 per cent and 9.6 per cent, respectively.

Globally, the WHO estimated 2 crore new cancer cases and 97 lakh deaths, and about 5.3 crore people were alive within five years after a cancer diagnosis. About one in five people develop cancer in their lifetime, and roughly one in nine men and one in 12 women die from the disease, it said.

A majority of countries do not adequately finance priority cancer and palliative (pain-related) care services, as part of universal health coverage, the WHO said, publishing survey results from 115 countries.

The IARC report showed that 10 types of cancer collectively comprised around two-thirds of new cases and deaths globally in 2022.

The analysis found lung cancer to be the most commonly occurring cancer (12.4 per cent of total new cases) and also the leading cause of cancer death, accounting for almost 19 per cent of the total cancer deaths.

'Bravely fought the disease': Reality TV star dies of cervical cancer at 32

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Mumbai

POONAM Pandey, model and reality TV star, has died of cervical cancer, her manager said on Friday.

The 32-year-old actor, who was last seen on the reality show Lock Upp, "bravely fought the disease" and died this morning, her team said in a statement.

"Poonam Pandey the beloved actress and social media personality, has tragically passed away this morning due to Cervical Cancer, leaving the entertainment industry in shock and mourning," her manager Nikita Sharma said.

Her unwavering spirit amidst her health struggles was truly remarkable," shared Sharma, highlighting the "critical need for increased awareness and proactive measures against preventable diseases like Cervical Cancer".

Reactions on social media ranged from disbelief to scepticism, with many pointing out that the model was seen on the red carpet at a Goa event just three days ago.

Her media manager Parul Chawla, who was cited by reports as having confirmed her death, later asserted that Pandey's sister had called "regarding her sudden demise" and that she was waiting for details. "This is to place on record that we have received a call from her family member (sister) this morning regarding her sudden demise (as posted on her official Instagram ID). We are awaiting further information from the family to update everyone. We will release official statement as we receive the further update to be shared," Chawla said.

Pandey had hit the headlines in 2011 with her announcement to strip if India won the cricket World Cup.

The news of the model came a day after Union Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman announced the government's plans to focus on vaccination against cervical cancer for girls aged 9 to 14 as part of her Interim Budget 2024.

No interim stay on puja in Gyanvapi

Allahabad HC asks Muslim side to file amended plea against trial court's January 17 order

NAMITA BAJPAI @Lucknow

Police stop Muslims to offer 'namaz' at Gyanvapi Mosque in Varanasi on Friday | PTI

IN a major blow to Anjuman Intezamia Masajid (AIM), the Gyanvapi mosque management committee, the Allahabad High Court on Friday refused to allow the plea of AIM seeking an interim stay on the ongoing puja inside the southern cellar, known as Vyas Ji Ka Tehkhana, on mosque premises.

The puja inside the cellar had commenced on January 31, in compliance with the Varanasi District Court order delivered the same day, allowing prayers by a Hindu priest named by Shree Kashi Vishwanath Temple Trust (SKVTT).

Hearing the AIM's plea against Varanasi District court's January 31 order, the high court bench of Justice Rohit Ranjan Agarwal refused to grant interim stay on the ongoing puja inside the cellar saying that the AIM had not challenged the District Court's January 17 order appointing the Varanasi DM as the receiver of the cellar.

AIM had no objection to the appointment of DM as cellar's receiver who now has the possession of the cellar, wondered Justice Agarwal. The bench asked the AIM to amend its plea and file a fresh one challenging Varanasi district court's January 17, 2024 order. It granted AIM time till February 6 to move the amended plea. The high court also directed the Advocate General of UP to maintain law and order situation in the area.

Notably, the Varanasi DM, in compliance with the district court's order, took possession of the cellar on January 23.

Varanasi district judge AK Vishvesha, in his January 31 order, had also directed the Varanasi District Magistrate/receiver of the cellar, to make suitable arrangements in the steel grill around the cellar for the performance of puja.

In compliance with the court order, the district administration removed the grills around the cellar and allowed the priest named by Shree Kashi Vishwanath Temple Trust to perform puja which commenced on January 31 night and continued till early morning of February 1.

Subsequently, the AIM moved Allahabad High Court seeking a stay on puja on Thursday. The AIM had initially moved the Supreme Court to challenge the District Court's order allowing puja inside the cellar and had sought an urgent hearing.

However, the apex court had refused an urgent hearing to the AIM and directed it to go to the Allahabad High Court with its plea.

Tight security in Varanasi amid bandh call

NAMITA BAJPAI @Lucknow

THE business establishments and shops in Muslim dominated areas across Varanasi district remained closed following a bandh against the Varanasi district court order of January 31, 2024, allowing puja in the southern cellar of the Gyanvapi mosque premises.

However, the police administration had sounded an alert in the Varanasi district ahead of Friday namaz which passed off peacefully at all the mosques.

The bandh call was given by Mufti-e-Banaras and AIM general secretary Maulana Abdul Batin Nomani. In a letter issued by the AIM, the Muslim community was called upon to abstain from work and offer namaz at the nearest mosque peacefully and advised Muslim women to remain indoors.

Meanwhile, heavy police force and RAF were deployed in the city. While the Kashi Vishwanath Temple-Gyanvapi area was fortified with additional forces, Chowk and Bansphatak areas were made a no-vehicle zone.

Grand-alliance had offered me CM's post, says Manjhi

RAMASHANKAR @Patna

Seeks 2 cabinet berths

Manjhi had revolted against Nitish and refused to hand over the chief minister post when JD (U) wanted it back from him. Adding fuel to the fire, Manjhi also demanded two ministerial berths as he said that it would be injustice to his party if his demand was not conceded.

AHEAD of Nitish Kumar-led NDA government seeking trust vote, Hindustani Awam Morcha (HAM) patron and former Bihar chief minister Jitan Ram Manjhi on Friday created a flutter in political circles by demanding two ministerial berths in the cabinet claiming that the mahagathbandhan had offered him the chief minister's post.

Chief Minister Nitish Kumar will seek a vote on February 12, the inaugural day of the budget session. "Mahagathbandhan had offered me the post of CM if I extended support of my party's four MLAs in the government formation, but I did not succumb to the allure of the post because I am not saleable," he remarked.

Nitish had appointed Manjhi the chief minister in 2014 after he resigned from his post when JD(U) was restricted to only two seats. Manjhi had resigned from the CM's post without taking the trust vote on the floor of the House in 2015. Manjhi had revolted against Nitish and refused to hand over the post when JD (U) wanted it back from him. Adding fuel to the fire, Manjhi also demanded two ministerial berths as he said that it would be injustice to his party if his demand was not conceded.Nitsh had submitted a letter of support of 128 MLAs to the governor last Sunday as he was sworn in as the chief minister for the ninth term the same day.

With a wafer-thin majority in the assembly, the NDA government may find itself in a tight spot if Manjhi really decides to support the mahagathbandhan to become the chief minister of the state for the second time.Even after five days of the formation of the new NDA government, Nitish has yet to expand his cabinet.

SP announces list of 16 candidates, rattles Cong

While the seat-sharing talks among the INDIA bloc partners —Samajwadi Party and the Congress — have not reached a logical conclusion in UP, the former rattled the grand old party by announcing 16 candidates for the upcoming Lok Sabha elections. The first list has three Yadav family members, including sitting MP Dimple Yadav for the Mainpuri seat, Prof Ram Gopal Yadav's son Akshya from Firozabad and Akhilesh Yadav's cousin Dharmendra from Badaun. Meanwhile, the SP took the lead in announcing the list of candidates on seats like Lakhimpur Kheri and Farrukhabad which were being eyed by the Congress.

BJP plans 'Ram Darshan Yatra' for devotees

Having woven a strong narrative around the pran-pratishtha of Ram Lalla in his final abode in Ayodhya in presence of PM Modi, the ruling saffron brigade will not allow it to subside with the upcoming Lok Sabha polls. It is using every trick up its sleeves to keep the issue alive. On Friday, the ruling party rolled out "Ram Darshan Yatra" plan for Ram devotees. The first batch of pilgrims from Kanpur Dehat arrived Ayodhya by UP State Road Transport Corporation buses. Beginning Friday, the darshan programme would continue till March or even beyond till Ram Navami on April 17.

BJP's renaming spree on; Aligarh, Ghaziabad in line

The BJP government in UP had been in the renaming mode since 2018 after coming to power in 2017. After renaming Allahabad as Prayagraj and Faizabad as Ayodhya in 2018, the proposals for renaming Aligarh as Harinagar and Ghaziabad as Gajnagar or Harnandi Nagar are already afloat. Firozabad is the latest to join the league of districts set to be renamed. The Glass City of India (Firozabad) may soon be known as Chandranagar if the claim made by UP tourism and culture minister Jaiveer Singh holds any water. In ancient times Firozabad was known as Chandranagar and Jain king Chandrasen was its ruler.

FCRA VIOLATION

CBI raids home, NGO of activist Harsh Mander

MUKESH RANJAN @New Delhi

THE CBI on Friday registered a case against activist Harsh Mander and his NGO—Centre for Equity Studies (CES)—for alleged violation of the Foreign Contribution (Regulation) Act.

Following the registration of the FIR, CBI conducted raids here at Mander's residence and at his NGO where he is the chairperson-cum-secretary.

The CBI spokesperson in a statement said, "It has been alleged that the NGO had transferred ₹32 lakh other than salary/wages/remuneration, from its FCRA account into the account of individual(s) during 2020-21 in violation of the provisions of FCRA."

The Ministry of Home Affairs in its note to the CBI stated that Section 3 of the FCRA prohibits acceptance of foreign contribution by correspondents, columnists, cartoonists, editor, owner, printer, publisher of a registered newspaper, but Mander has been writing columns and articles in newspapers and web portals.

DRDO develops green propulsion system for LEO missions on ISRO's PSLV

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

IN a big boost to achieve sustainable development of space technology, Defence Research and Development Organisation (DRDO) has successfully demonstrated its 'Green Propulsion System' in-orbit functionality for Low Earth Orbit (LEO) missions on an Indian Space Research Organisation (ISRO)-launched payload on board the PSLV C-58 mission.

This innovative technology will guarantee a non-toxic and environment-friendly propulsion system for low-orbit space. "The system consists of indigenously developed propellants, fill and drain valves, latch valves, solenoid valves, catalyst bed, drive electronics, etc. It is ideal for space missions with high thrust requirements," DRDO said.

The organisation sanctioned the project to a Bengaluru-based start-up Bellatrix Aerospace Pvt Ltd (Development Agency). The project — 1N Class Green Monopropellant Thruster (1NCGMT) — is for altitude control and orbit-keeping of microsatellites.

The propulsion system was developed under the Technology Development Fund (TDF) scheme of DRDO which is a flagship programme of the Ministry of Defence executed by DRDO under the Make in India Initiative for start-ups and Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises (MSMEs).

The PSLV C-58 was the 60th flight of ISRO launched on January 1, 2024, carrying the X-ray Polarimeter Satellite (XPoSAT) along with ten other rideshare payloads, of which (1NCGMT) was one among them. The PSLV C58 was launched as PSLV Orbital Experiment Module (POEM)-3. The XPoSAT was designed to carry out research in space-based polarisation measurements of X-ray emission from celestial sources, and carried two payloads, namely Polarimeter Instrument in X-rays (POLIX) by Raman Research Institute and X-ray Spectroscopy and Timing (XSPECT) by Space Astronomy Group of UR Rao Satellite Centre (URSC).

DRDO in a statement said the Telemetry Data from PSLV Orbital Experimental Module (POEM) at ISRO Telemetry, Tracking and Command Network (ISTRAC), Bengaluru, was successfully validated with ground level solution and is found to have exceeded all performance parameters.

Rahul says seat-sharing talks on with TMC amid Didi's 'spring cuckoo' jibe

A week after Trinamool Congress chief Mamata Banerjee announced that her party would fight the Lok Sabha elections alone in West Bengal's all 42 Lok Sabha seats ruling out alliance with the INDIA bloc partner Congress, Rahul Gandhi said on Friday that talks for a possible seat-sharing deal are underway and the issue between the two parties would be "resolved" soon.

Asked why the Congress is giving importance to the TMC when Mamata already made a clear announcement that her party would fight alone, Gandhi, on his last of Bharat Jodo Nyay Yatra in Bengal, said, "Even Mamataji is saying that she is in the alliance. Neither Mamataji has said, nor Congress has come out of the alliance. Seat negotiations are on from both ends. It will be resolved."

However, Mamata, shortly after Gandhi's yatra left Bengal and entered Jharkhand, took a jibe at the Congress leader. In an oblique reference to Rahul, she called him a "spring cuckoo" who has visited the state for a photoshoot.

"You will never see some leaders throughout the year. They are never seen standing beside the people. But they appear like spring cuckoos before elections. After photoshoots, they leave. Identify them. Do not vote for them. Voting for them means strengthening the BJP," Mamata said without naming Rahul.

The Bengal CM apparently referred to the CPM leadership's presence in Rahul's yatra in Murshidabad on Monday, according to TMC leaders. "The Congress leader, and CPM state secretary Mohammad Selim and Central Committee members and other leaders were seen in photographs, which were shared on social media platforms which the chief minister referred as photoshoot," said a TMC leader.

Echoing Rahul, Congress general secretary Jairam Ramesh said that the Congress and the TMC have common objective of uprooting the BJP from the Centre. "Dialogues between the two parties will sort out all the issues related to seat adjustment," he said.

NaMo makes grand entry in Gujarat budget

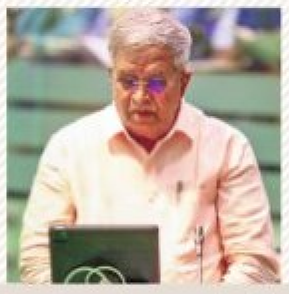
3 schemes named after PM

ALL IN THE NAME

Namo Laxmi: Girls studying in classes 9 and 10 to get ₹10,000 annually and ₹15,000 annually while studying in classes 11 and 12.



TOTAL BUDGET OUTLAY ₹3,32,465 CR

SURPLUS ₹146.72 CR with no new taxes

Namo Saraswati: Those in science stream in higher secondary schools will be given assistance of ₹10,000 annually while studying in class 11 and ₹15,000 while studying in class 12.

Namo Shri: Pregnant women from 11 categories including SC, ST will be provided assistance of ₹12,000.

THE BJP-led Gujarat government on Friday proposed to launch three new schemes in the name of Prime Minister Modi while announcing the state Budget. The three schemes are: Namo Lakshmi, Namo Shri and Namo Saraswati worth a total of ₹2,250 crore.

State finance minister Kanubhai Desai presented in the Assembly a ₹3.32 lakh-crore Budget that imposed no new taxes for 2024-25.

Desai informed the House that under the proposed Namo Laxmi Scheme, girls studying in classes 9 and 10 will get ₹10,000 annually and ₹15,000 annually while studying in classes 11 and 12. In effect, girls studying in government-aided and private schools from classes 9 to 12 will be given ₹50,000 over four years of their education. A provision of ₹1,250 crore has been made in the Budget for the scheme.

In the proposed Namo Saraswati scheme, students enrolling in the science stream in higher secondary schools (from low and middle-income households) will be given an assistance of ₹10,000 annually while studying in class 11 and ₹15,000 while studying in class 12. This assistance of ₹25,000 over two years to students is expected to increase the number of students enrolled in science subjects from 2 lakh to 5 lakh annually over the next five years. A provision of ₹250 crore has been made in the Budget, the finance minister said.

In the third Namo Shri Scheme, the government proposed a provision of ₹750 crore in the budget for the year 2024-25. Under the scheme, pregnant women from 11 categories including SC, ST, NFSA, and PM –JAY beneficiaries will be provided assistance of ₹12,000.

The Budget outlay of ₹3,32,465 crore for 2024-25 indicates an increase of ₹31,444 crore, or 10.44 percent, over the previous fiscal. The government presented the Budget with an estimated surplus of ₹146.72 crore and proposed no new taxes. While no new taxes were proposed, the state government has proposed to give citizens a relief of ₹754 crore by easing some provisions of the Motor Vehicle Act and stamp duty.

In his Budget address, Desai announced a host of schemes and projects and said the state government kept GYAN -- Garib (the poor), Yuva (youth), Annadata (farmer), and Nari Shakti (women power) at the core while preparing the Budget. The finance minister also announced the conversion of seven municipalities Navsari, Gandhidham, Morbi, Vapi, Anand, Mehsana and Surendranagar-Wadhwan into municipal corporations.

Gujarat CM Bhupendra Patel told the media following the budget that this budget has been created keeping in mind Prime Minister Modi's vision of Viksit Bharat in 2047.

"The poor, young, farmers, and women have been given priority for their development. This is an encouraging Budget," said the minister.

The state Congress, on the other hand, said the Budget was directionless. Amit Chavda, the Opposition leader said,"The income tax revenue has increased, while the government has been very stingy in providing relief to the people ."

Target set: After cleanest city, admin plans to make Indore free of beggars

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bhopal

Attempts to track, rescue children

Attempts will be made to track, rescue and enroll the children into education. Proper counseling of parents will be conducted, as many of these children are pushed into begging by their parents for many reasons.

HAVING already attained the tag of being the cleanest city in the country for seven years in a row, Indore has now decided to become a 'beggar free city.'

In the multi-phase campaign to make Indore (Madhya Pradesh's most populated city and considered state's commercial capital) beggar free, the district administration has set a deadline of 15 days, to first make the city free of children indulgent in begging at road crossings and other prominent places. Indore's new district collector Ashish Singh chaired a meeting on Thursday with social organisations and NGOs already working for eradication of begging in the city.

"The discussions at the meeting revealed that around 7,000 people (half of them being children) are indulging in begging. We will address the issue from now on in a targeted manner," Singh said. Knowing well that making Indore begging free at one go is not attainable; a multi-phase plan is being devised, he said."We will start by targeting the children and mentally and physically challenged people who are engaged in the activity. A target of 15 days has been fixed to rescue all such children," Singh added.

Attempts will be made to track such children, rescue them and enroll them into education. Proper counseling of parents of such children too will be done, as many of those children are pushed into begging by their parents and families for multiple reasons.

The help of the child helpline of the women and child development department, social justice department will be taken by the CEO Indore Smart City, who was the nodal officer of the recent meeting.

"We will also work on mentally and physically challenged people who are into begging. They will be rehabilitated by increasing the number of dedicated facilities meant for them in the city," Singh maintained.

In the subsequent phases, other beggars will be targeted. The action plan will also include crackdown against those people who are running begging rackets on contract basis.

POLL UPDATES

Jailed Pak ex-PM Imran urges people to use ‘weapon of vote’

Days ahead of the February 8 general elections in Pakistan, jailed former prime minister Imran Khan on Friday claimed had he not challenged the US might, no premier in Pakistan could have dared to withstand such blatant foreign interference in its internal matters in the future. Khan, currently lodged at the high-security Adiala Jail in Rawalpindi, took to X to explain why he was ‘punished’ in several concocted cases and also urged the people to use the weapon of vote in the elections to overthrow the ‘crooks.’

Army the most trusted institution in Pakistan, says survey

Ahead of the February 8 general elections, the powerful Pakistan Army has emerged as the “most trusted institution” with 74 per cent approval ratings in a survey in which the election commission is the least trusted among eight institutions, according to a media report. Ipsos Pakistan carried out the ‘Political Participation Landscape of Pakistani Youth’ survey for Voice of America (VOA) in Jan 2024. “The sample size of the survey was 2,050 respondents. The target respondents were aged 18-34,’ said a report.

Hamas gives ‘initial’ support to Gaza truce plan as fighting rages

Group says presented a three-stage plan that includes ceasefire

GAZA

FIGHTING in Gaza raged on Friday with scores reported killed overnight, after mediator Qatar said Hamas had given its “initial” support to a hostage-prisoner exchange deal that would pause its war with Israel. The health ministry in the Hamas-run territory said 112 people had been killed over the previous 24 hours, while the Hamas press office reported Israeli air and artillery bombardment around Khan Yunis — southern Gaza’s main city and the focus of recent fighting.

Gaza City resident Abir al-Madhun said leaflets calling on civilians to leave had again been dropped by Israeli aircraft over the Al-Shifa Hospital compound where she has sought refuge. Nearly four months of fighting have left Gaza “uninhabitable”, the United Nations says, while an Israeli siege has resulted in dire shortages of food, water, fuel and medicines. Winter storms brought torrential rain to Gaza Friday, piling more misery on the hundreds of thousands of displaced civilians who have sought shelter in bombed out buildings and makeshift camps.

The humanitarian crisis and the mounting civilian death toll have triggered growing international calls for a ceasefire. After a truce proposal agreed with Israeli negotiators was presented to Hamas on Thursday, Qatar’s foreign ministry spokesman Majed al-Ansari said there were hopes of “good news” about a fresh pause to the fighting “in the next couple of weeks”.

Ansari said a truce plan thrashed out with Israeli negotiators by Egyptian, Qatari and US mediators in Paris earlier this week had received a “positive” initial response from Hamas. “That proposal has been approved by the Israeli side and now we have an initial positive confirmation from the Hamas side,” he said. But a source close to Hamas told AFP: “There is no agreement on the framework of the agreement yet -- the factions have important observations -- and the Qatari statement is rushed and not true.” A Hamas source said the group had been presented with a three-stage plan which would start with an initial six-week halt to the fighting that would see more aid deliveries into Gaza. The pause would also see the release of “women, children and sick men over 60” among the Israeli hostages in exchange for Palestinian prisoners in Israel, the source said.

A deal ‘right now’

The war in Gaza was triggered by Hamas’s October 7 attack on Israel, which resulted in the deaths of around 1,160 people, mostly civilians, according to an AFP tally based on official figures. Militants also seized about 250 hostages, and Israel says 132 remain in Gaza. After the attack, Israel launched a withering offensive that has killed at least 27,131 people in Gaza, mostly women and children, according to the health ministry in the Hamas-run territory. AFP

‘17,000 kids’ separated due to unrest

GENEVA

THE United Nations said on Friday it estimates that at least 17,000 children in the Gaza Strip have been left unaccompanied or separated nearly four months into the war.

“Each one has a heartbreaking story of loss and grief,” said Jonathan Crickx, spokesman for the UN children’s agency UNICEF in the Palestinian territories. “This figure corresponds to one percent of the overall displaced population -- 1.7 million people,” he told a media briefing in Geneva, via video-link from Jerusalem.

Each one “is a child who is coming to terms with a horrible new reality”.

Crickx said that tracing who the children were was proving “extremely difficult”, as sometimes they were brought to a hospital where they may be wounded or in shock, and “they simply can’t even say their names”.

He said that during conflicts, it was common for extended families to take care of children who lost their parents.

However, in Gaza, “due to the sheer lack of food, water or shelter, extended families are themselves distressed and face challenges to immediately take care of another child as they themselves are struggling to cater for their own children and family”, said Crickx.

Republican presidential candidate Nikki Haley in Columbia on Thursday | AFP

Nikki Haley casts Trump, Biden as Grumpy Old Men

WASHINGTON

AHEAD of the do-or-die South Carolina Republican primary later this month, Indian-American Republican presidential aspirant Nikki Haley attacked her rivals in the 2024 election ‘ fellow party member Donald Trump and Democratic incumbent Joe Biden, casting them as “Grumpy Old Men”. Haley, 52, the former UN Ambassador and former South Carolina Governor, is the only Republican candidate still challenging the 77-year-old former president Trump for the Republican nomination for president.

The most important Republican primary will be held in South Carolina on February 24. A Trump victory here would make him a presumptive nominee, while a Haley win would propel her candidacy in the party. Both candidates are doing an intensive campaign in South Carolina, Haley’s home state. In a new series of political ads under the theme of ‘Grumpy Old Men,’ Haley went after the age of the two men likely to secure their respective parties’ nominations for president. In a reference to the 1993 movie Grumpy Old Men, starring Jack Lemmon and Walter Matthau, Haley posted an image on X, formerly Twitter, replacing the actors’ faces in a version of the movie poster with the faces of Biden and Trump.

According to the latest CNN poll, in a head-to-head matchup between Donald Trump and Joe Biden, Trump beats Biden by only four points. Agencies

BIDEN MEETS FRIENDLY AUTO WORKERS UNION

WARREN (US): President Joe Biden chatted with a friendly union crowd inside a United Auto Workers hall in Michigan on Thursday as pro-Palestinian demonstrators held back by police with riot shields voiced their anger nearby at the president’s full-throated support for Israel in its war with Hamas. The tension highlighted the challenges ahead for Biden in holding on to this critical battleground state in November over likely rival Donald Trump, and underscored the Democrats’ concerns about flagging enthusiasm among voters who have been key to their coalition. Biden’s visit with autoworkers making phone bank calls for him ahead of the state’s Democratic primary came just days after union President Shawn Fain announced their endorsement of him. “We know who’s been there for labor and who wasn’t,” adding that the union’s mission now is to ‘keep Joe Biden as our president.”

Gas explosion in Kenya kills at least 3 people, injures over 280

NAIROBI: A truck loaded with liquid petroleum gas cylinders exploded in a depot in the Kenyan capital and set off a late-night inferno that rapidly spread and burned homes and warehouses, killing at least three people and injuring 280, officials said Friday. The death toll was expected to rise. At least 24 people were critically injured, the Kenya Red Cross said, after a huge fireball erupted from the gas depot. Some gas cylinders were thrown hundreds of metres (feet), sparking separate fires in the neighbourhood. The truck was parked inside a gas cylinder storage and filling site that had multiple applications to operate there rejected last year because it was too close to residential areas, Kenya’s Energy and Petroleum Regulatory Authority said, raising questions over whether it was operating illegally.

Grenades, bomb explosions rock Balochistan province ahead of polls

ISLAMABAD

AS authorities in Pakistan scrambled to keep peace ahead of next week’s general elections, the country’s restive Balochistan province was rattled with at least 10 bomb and grenade attacks on Thursday, resulting in the death of one person. Several police stations and deputy commissioners’ offices were targeted in the attacks in which six persons, including a police officer and a jail warden, were injured, the Dawn newspaper reported.

Pakistan will go to polls on February 8. “At least 10 bomb and grenade attacks happened across Balochistan, including provincial capital Quetta,” the senior official told the paper. A bomb, placed along a footpath on the China-Pakistan Economic Cooperation (CPEC) road in the Spinny area of Quetta, went off, killing a passerby, according to Quetta SSP (operations) Jawad Tariq. The intensity of the blast rocked several areas of the provincial capital, according to officials. The police cordoned off the area and shifted the body to Civil Hospital. Hospital officials said the victim’s body was mutilated due to his proximity to the bomb at the time of the blast. The deceased was identified as an 84-year-old man. SSP Tariq added that around 8kg of explosive was used in the improvised explosive device. The target of the bomb was unknown as there was no election campaign-related event scheduled within the vicinity, the SSP said, adding that security was already on high alert due to the upcoming elections.

Meanwhile, at least 24 militants were killed in the past three days during security operations in Balochistan, the army said on Friday. Some of the killed terrorists included the most wanted militants. PTI

ICJ: Can rule on Ukraine’s genocide case against Russia

THE HAGUE

THE United Nations’ top court said Friday it has jurisdiction to rule on a request by Ukraine for a declaration that Kyiv is not responsible for genocide.

The ruling comes in a case filed by Ukraine alleging that Moscow used trumped-up claims of genocide to justify its invasion nearly two years ago.

The International Court of Justice (ICJ) said it did not have jurisdiction in two other aspects of Ukraine’s case ‘ claims that Russia’s invasion violated the 1948 genocide convention and that Moscow’s recognition of two breakaway republics in eastern Ukraine also amounted to a breach of the convention.

In the highly-charged case, Kyiv claims that Russia breached the landmark 1948 convention by using trumped-up claims of genocide in the eastern regions of Luhansk and Donetsk as a pretext for attacking Ukraine nearly two years ago. Ukraine also accuses Moscow of ‘planning acts of genocide.’ Moscow rejects the allegations and argued last year that the court should throw out the case before even considering the merits of Kyiv’s claims. At hearings in September, the leader of Moscow’s legal team, Gennady Kuzmin, called Ukraine’s case ‘hopelessly flawed and at odds with the longstanding jurisprudence of this court.’ At the same hearings, Ukraine insisted the court has jurisdiction and slammed Moscow for openly flouting an interim order by the court to halt its invasion. AP

North Korea tests more cruise missiles

SEOUL

NORTH Korean on Friday extended a provocative run in weapons tests by firing cruise missiles into the sea, as leader Kim Jong Un called for his military to step up war preparations while touring a shipyard. South Korea’s Joint Chiefs of Staff said the US and South Korean militaries were analysing the North Korean launches into its western sea. It said the South’s military detected multiple missiles but it did not immediately provide a specific number or an assessment of their flight characteristics.

The launches, which were the North’s fourth round of cruise missile tests in 2024, came hours after state media reported that Kim reiterated his focus on strengthening his naval forces as he inspected unspecified naval projects at a shipyard in Nampho, on the west coast. Kim in recent months has emphasized his effort to build a nuclear-armed navy to counter what he portrays as growing external threats posed by the United States, South Korea and Japan, which have stepped up their military cooperation to cope with Kim’s nuclear weapons and missile program.

North Korea’s official Korean Central News Agency did not specify when Kim visited Nampho. It paraphrased Kim as saying that the strengthening of his naval force ‘presents itself as the most important issue in reliably defending the maritime sovereignty of the country and stepping up the war preparations.’ KCNA did not specify the types of warships being built in Nampho, but said they were related to a five-year military development plan set during a ruling party congress in early 2021. During those meetings, Kim revealed an extensive wish list of advanced military assets, which included nuclear-powered submarines and nuclear missiles that can be launched from underwater. AP

US bolsters defences around Jordan base

WASHINGTON

THE US has bolstered defences at a base in Jordan that was attacked by Iran-backed militants as it prepares for a wider US response to a drone attack that killed three service members, a US official said on Friday.

Even as a larger US military response seemed imminent, some Iran-backed factions pledged to continue to attack US forces in the region. In a statement released on Friday, one of Iraq’s strongest Iran-backed militias, Harakat al-Nujaba, announced its plans to continue military operations against US troops, despite other allied factions having called off their attacks in the wake of a Sunday drone strike that killed three US service members in Jordan. While previous US responses have been more limited, the attack on Tower 22, as the Jordan outpost is known, and the deaths of the three service members has crossed a line, the official said. The base was struck by an Iranian-made drone fired from Iraq, the official said. In the days since the attack, the US has bolstered the defences around Tower 22, which houses about 350 US troops and sits near the demilitarised zone on the border between Jordan and Syria. The Iraqi border is only 6 miles (10 kilometers) away. AP

Paytm shares decline 40% in two sessions

Statements by company and assurances by founder CEO Vijay Shekhar Sharma fail to check the share price fall

ARSHAD KHAN @ New Delhi

ONE97 Communications Limited, parent of Paytm, investors have lost ₹17,500 crore in two sessions as the company's share prices have plummeted by 40% following the RBI's action to curtail its payment bank activities.

According to exchange data, the market capitalisation of the fintech firm got eroded by ₹17,378.41 crore in two days to ₹30,931.59 crore at Friday's close. Paytm shares closed the Friday session at its new 52-week low of ₹487.20 apiece.

The fall is also attributed to multiple brokerages downgrading the stock as they see a sharp decline in the company's earnings, going forward. Multiple statements issued by the company and assurances by founder CEO Vijay Shekhar Sharma to users have so far failed to check the share price fall.

The stock, debuted on the exchanges in November 2021, is often called one of the biggest wealth guzzlers of recent times given its IPO issue price was kept at ₹2,150 apiece. Compared to its issue price, Paytm shares are now down by about 75%.

Brokerage Motilal Oswal Financial Services, slashing its price target to ₹575, in a note said the RBI's decision will have a major impact on the company's business performance. "We remain watchful of Paytm's business model and its ability to navigate through this uncertain regulatory and macro environment," it said.

Morgan Stanley cut its target price for Paytm from ₹690 to ₹555 and slashed revenue estimates for FY25 by 6% and 8% for FY26. Despite this, Morgan Stanley Asia (Singapore) PTE on Friday bought 50 lakh shares worth ₹243.6 crore in One 97 Communications via open market transactions on NSE. The share purchase at ₹487.2 per share translates to a 0.79% stake in the fintech firm.

In a setback for Paytm which had ambitions to become a full-fledged bank, RBI on Wednesday barred its Payments Bank from taking new or top-up deposits in any customer accounts, prepaid instruments, wallets, FASTags, NCMC cards, etc. after February 29, 2024 owing to non-compliance.

Paytm will keep working beyond Feb 29: Founder

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Bengaluru

PAYTM founder and CEO Vijay Shekhar Sharma said firm's app is working, and will keep working beyond February 29 as usual. The firm said it will expand its existing relationships with leading third-party banks to distribute payments and financial services products.

The company said there will be no impact on user deposits in savings, wallets, FASTags and NCMC accounts. The RBI on Wednesday barred Paytm Payments Bank from accepting deposits in any customer account after February 29, and cited persistent non-compliances and continued material supervisory concerns in the bank, warranting further supervisory action.

As per fintech experts, the RBI has already sent notices to the payments bank, but the latter failed to heed warnings and the bank was told to conduct a audit of its IT system. It is said there are lapses regarding know-your-customer documents. In its March 2022 notice to Paytm Payments Bank, the RBI had directed it to appoint an IT audit firm.

Start-up founders have extended their support for Sharma. Prafull Billore, owner and founder of MBA Chaiwala, on X said, "Amid challenges, Vijay Shekhar Sharma steers Paytm with unwavering determination. A visionary leader, he navigates turbulence with resilience. In the face of adversity, Sharma's tenacity shines, a beacon for the company's future. Paytm's captain stands strong, charting a course to weather the toughest times."

Interim Budget 2024: A resounding statement of intent

HINDSIGHT

HARSH GOENKA
Chairperson, RPG Group

THE 2024 budget sounded a clarion call for inclusive and sustainable growth. Although an interim budget, FM Nirmal Sitharamansignalled the government's commitment tobroad-basing the India growth story with the underlying theme that the fruits of development must be accessible to all. To put it simply, the tide of economic prosperity has to lift all boats with none left behind.

The government's ambition of Viksit Bharat rests on four pillars - Yuva (the youth), Garib (the poor), Mahila (women) and Kisan (our farmers). Our Yuva are the engines of our economic growth. India has been blessed with a demographic dividend, a large young, working-age population who needs to be empowered with skills so they can fulfil their role as the stewards of our economic destiny.The Garib need to be empowered - empowered to dream, empowered with opportunity to chase those dreams, empowered so they can play their due part in our economic growth story and enable us to unleash our full potential. The Mahila need to be empowered with parity - parity when it comes to access to education, healthcare, financial freedom, employment and pay. Lastly, our Kisan, our farmers –they need to be empowered with access to credit, technology, to digital tools and a fair price mechanism so that they may remain competitive.

Empowering these four key constituents of the Viksit Bharat dream is no mean feat, especially in a country as vast, diverse, and complex as India. But as the 2024 budget showed,we have been making a sure and steady progress.The numbers do the talking. As the FM underlined - as many as 1.4 crore of our country's youth have been trained under the Skill India Mission. At the same time, 22 lakh crore loans to over 43 crore beneficiaries have been sanctioned under the PM Mudra Yojana encouraging entrepreneurship.Similarly, 25 crore people have been freed from the shackles of multi-dimensional poverty. The participation of women in education, for STEM courses and in turn in the labour force have all seen a noticeable rise.Lastly, direct financial assistance schemes have helped 11.8 million farmers. These are just some of the headline numbers. A deeper dive into the current state of play paints an even more optimistic picture.

This is what inclusive development looks like and it is, at its essence, being fuelled by our robust rate of economic growth. We are among the world's fastest growing economies. But what's truly encouraging is that we are achieving this growth without compromising on our commitment to sustainability. Today's budget presentation reaffirms that the Modi government remains as committed as ever to achieving the net-zero targets it has set.From adoption of green urban mobility solutions like e-buses to rooftop solar projects, from providing viability gap funding for wind energy to rolling out a new scheme for biomanufacturing, India is exploring different avenues to build a better, cleaner and greener world.

The Budget was a trailer for the full episode to be released later this year. Thematically the budget was sneak peak into the priorities before the Modi government. It was good to see fiscal prudence occupying the box seat with infrastructure creation, innovation and green energy for company. The FM's speech exuded great confidence in the economy and growing belief in India's tryst with destiny.

Byju's delays salaries, says investors can't oust management

UMA KANNAN @Bengaluru

> We would emphasise that shareholder's agreement doesn't give them right to vote on management change
> Byju's

EDTECH firm Byju's has once again delayed paying salaries to employees. It said the $200 million rights issue is likely to take at least 25 more days to complete.

"The success of the rights issue will ensure that we have sufficient operational capital to fund our short-term needs from March onwards," the management said in its letter to employees.The management also said that January salaries will be paid in a phased manner and will be completed by Monday.

In December 2023, Byju's founder Byju Raveendran pledged his home to pay salaries. The letter said there is a slight delay in salary disbursements due to artificially induced crises by these select investors. The edtech firm's key shareholders including Prosus have called an extraordinary general meeting (EGM) for removal of founder and reconstitution of the board. They collectively hold about 30% of the stake. They are concerned about the future stability of the company under the current leadership with current constitution of the board.

Byju's on Friday said, "Under these circumstances, we would emphasise that the shareholder's agreement doesn't give them the right to vote on CEO or management change."

"Raveendran and his leadership team have kept Think & Learn Private Limited (TLPL), parent of Byju's, afloat after three investors left the company's board last year. The company, along with advisory board consisting of Rajneesh Kumar and Mohandas Pai, constituted a working group with the investors to find a constructive way forward," the company said.

TATA MOTORS PROFIT DOUBLES TO ₹7,100 CRORE

NEW DELHI: Tata Motors on Friday reported a 133.32% increase in net profit to ₹7,100 crore for the quarter ending December 2023. The company had reported a net profit of ₹3,043 crore in the year-ago period, its first profit in two years. The consolidated revenue rose 25% year-on-year to ₹1,10,600 crore in the third quarter of the current financial year, the company said in a statement. EBITDA (earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortisation) jumped 320 bps to 14.3% during the December quarter, while improved wholesales and reduced material costs resulted in EBIT margins of 8.8% (+510 bps). The net debt was reduced further by ₹9,500 crore to ₹29,200 crore, the company said, adding that it is on track to deleveraging targets. EBIT margin in Q3 FY24 was more than double year-on-year to 8.8%. Revenue from commercial vehicle sales improved by 19.2% to ₹20,100 crore while EBIT increased to 8.6 per cent, benefiting from higher realisations and richer mix, Tata Motors said. ENS

INDIGO NET PROFIT DOUBLES TO ₹2,998 CRORE

NEW DELHI: Remaining profitable for fifth straight quarter, IndiGo on Friday reported more than doubling of its profit after tax to ₹2,998.1 crore in Q3FY24. Over 70 planes of the country's largest airline are grounded due to Pratt & Whitney engine issues. Helped by higher capacity and increased passenger traffic, InterGlobe Aviation, parent of IndiGo, saw its PAT jump in Q3FY24 from ₹1,422.6 crore in the year-ago period. ENS

CITY UNION BANK PROFIT UP 16% TO TO ₹253 CRORE

NEW DELHI: City Union Bank net profit rose 16.15% to ₹253.03 crore in the quarter ending December 2023 as against ₹217.84 crore during the same quarter the previous year. Total operating income jumped 10.00% to ₹1326.24 crore in the quarter as against ₹1205.64 crore during the previous quarter ended December 2022. One-time interest reversal of ₹25 crore, on the back of slippage in FITL account, impacted yields. ENS

BOI PROFIT SURGES 62% TO ₹1,870 CR

NEW DELHI: State-owned Bank of India (BoI) on Friday reported a 62% increase in net profit to ₹1,870 crore in the December quarter on account of decline in bad loans. The Mumbai-headquartered bank had earned a net profit of ₹1,151 crore in the year-ago period. Total income increased to ₹16,411 crore during the third quarter of the ongoing fiscal against ₹14,160 crore a year ago. ENS

Apple India revenue grows in double digit

RAKESH KUMAR @ New Delhi

APPLE'S revenue from India witnessed a strong double-digit growth in the December 2023 quarter, said Tim Cook, CEO of the company, on Friday.

Cook, in the company's earnings call, also said Apple did particularly well in several emerging markets, from Latin America to the Middle East. The iPhone maker sets December quarter records in India and Indonesia.

"India grew in revenue terms—strong double-digits in the December quarter—and hit a quarterly revenue record. The other emerging markets, like Indonesia, also hit a quarterly record," added Tim Cook.

In terms of revenue, iPhone revenue was $69.7 billion, up 6% year-over-year in December quarter. The iPhone maker has been doing well in India, growing quarter by quarter. According to Counterpoint Research, Apple shipped over 10 million iPhones in 2023, surpassing its rival Samsung. It accounted for 23% of smartphone revenue in 2023, while Samsung grabbed 21% of the market. Apple contributes significantly to India's electronic exports too. According to the India Cellular and Electronics Association (ICEA), India witnessed a 22.24% surge in electronics exports, led by smartphone shipments, mainly Apple's iPhone.

In our third term, India will become world's 3rd-largest economy: PM Modi

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

CONFIDENT of winning the upcoming General Election, Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Friday said in the third term of BJP-led central government, India will become the world's third-largest economy.

"India is on the move and is moving fast. Today's India is moving forward to make 'Viksit Bharat' by 2047…This is the start of golden period for the Indian mobility sector. Today, India's economy is growing at a brisk pace. In our third term, India's economy is sure to become the third largest in the world," said the PM at Bharat Mobility Global Expo 2024.

According to IMF data, India is currently placed at the fifth spot with the size of its economy pegged at over $3.7 trillion. The United States sits at the (around $27 trillion) and is followed by China (around $17.7 trillion), Germany ($4.4 trillion) and Japan ($4.2 trillion).

While giving numbers as to how the country's mobility sector has grown in size over the last 10 years since his government first came to power in 2014, Modi said that in Amrit Kaal, India's passenger vehicle, commercial vehicle and auto component industry should strive to become number 1 in the world. As per Modi, the emergence of neo-middle class, expanding spheres and growing income of the middle class will continue to generate demand for the mobility sector.

To lure the driver community who recently protested against the new hit-and-run law, Modi said that a new scheme is in the works to develop modern buildings with facilities for food, clean drinking water, toilets, parking and rest for drivers on all national highways. He added that the government is preparing to build 1,000 such buildings across the country in the first phase of this scheme. The PM advised tyre manufacturers to hold discussions with farmers to meet the need for natural rubber domestically.

SC order won't have financial impact: SEPC

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Chennai

THE Supreme Court has ordered Chennai-based engineering, and construction firm Shriram EPC Limited to pay ₹125 crore, along with interest of 7.5% per annum to private equity firm Gaja Capital.

The apex court ordered the Chennai-based company make the payment within two months from Monday (29th January). The court further ordered a re-listing of the case in April 2024. SEPC said the order won't have any financial impact, the company said in exchange filings on Friday. "In any event, there would not arise any financial impact on this Company as it stands fully indemnified against any matters arising out of the Arbitral Award in terms of the indemnification agreement (dated) 29th September 2015 with Twarit Consultancy Services Private Limited and Shri Housing Private Limited." SEPC share prices slided 0.84% and stood at Rs 26.01 at the end of Friday's trade.

The issue pertains to Gaja Capital entering into a share purchase agreement with Shriram EPC and Twarit in 2015 to purchase the shares of Haldia Coke and Chemicals, a step down subsidiary of SEPC. The agreement valued at ₹ 200 crore over several tranches. However SEPC and Twarit defaulted on the SPA, according to Gaja Capital. Gaja Capital got an arbitration order in its favour from Singapore International Arbitration Center (SIAC).

Gokaldas buys Matrix Clothing subsidiary for ₹489 crore

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @New Delhi

BENGALURU-based Gokaldas Exports has signed an agreement with Matrix Clothing Private Limited (MCPL) to acquire 100% of the equity share capital of Matrix Design & Industries Private Limited for an enterprise value of ₹489 crore.

The acquisition would be partly (₹247.5 crore) funded by way of preferential allotment of shares of Gokaldas Exports through share swap. Matrix Clothing is a manufacturer of men's, ladies', and children's knitwear apparel for several global brands across Europe, the UK, and North America. The group operates out of Gurgaon, Haryana and has five manufacturing facilities (4 in Gurgaon, Haryana and 1 in Ranchi, Jharkhand).

Through this deal, Gokaldas receives access to the knit apparel business segments, a mutually exclusive global customer base, greater access to European and the UK markets, geographical diversification and low-cost capacity expansion potential in the future.

Sivaramakrishnan Ganapathi, vice-Chairman and MD of Gokaldas Exports, said, "Acquisition of Matrix is an important step in this direction as it is strategically relevant, possesses a good complementary customer base, operationally strong, and a leader in its own sphere."

Govt invites bids for 4 GW offshore wind power projects

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @New Delhi

A day after finance minister Nirmala Sitharaman announced viability gap funding for offshore wind projects, new and renewable energy ministry invited bids for the development of offshore wind energy of a total capacity of 4 GW.

The bids invited are for four blocks of 1 GW each on open access basis, for development of offshore wind power projects off the coast of Tamil Nadu, through international competitive bidding. Under this arrangement, the developers who win the bid for each block will set up 1 GW offshore wind energy capacity and sell electricity directly to consumers.

"No viability gap funding (VGF) is given under the open access bids, and the renewable energy generated will be sold to entities such as industries which are currently in the high-tariff band," reads the statement. The minister on Thursday announced viability gap funding for offshore wind projects with a cumulative capacity of 1 GW.

Prime Minister Narendra Modi will lay foundation stone for NLC India Ltd's (NLCIL) 2,400 MW supercritical thermal power plant in Sambalpur, Odisha, on February 3, 2024. To reduce the cost of transportation of coal, the government approved setting up thermal power plants to be set up by coal CPSUs at pithead. Government has approved setting up of a 3 x 800 MW Ultra Super Critical Thermal Power Plant at Talabira through NLCIL.

On getting operational, this pit-head plant will generate electricity at a cost of ₹3.65 per unit (₹2.40 fixed cost and ₹1.25 variable cost), which is among the cheapest power produced by TPPs in the country.

DEATH FOR KERALA POLITICAL MURDER SETS FIRM PRECEDENT

THE award of death sentence to 15 PFI-SDPI activists by a court in Kerala's Mavelikkara for the murder of a BJP leader in 2021 is not only rare, but exemplary too. The 45-year-old BJP man, Ranjith Sreenivas, was hacked to death in front of his mother, wife and daughter at his home. It is for the first time that such a large group has been sentenced to death in a single case in the state. In her judgement, Judge Sreedevi V G said the murder was committed "most cruelly, heinously and dastardly with precise planning". She observed that the accused in the case "are hardcore criminals and there is no chance for reformation because they are very deeply interested in the affairs of the said organisation".

It was one of those tit-for-tat murders which have become a part of Kerala's violent political culture. Ranjith was killed a day after the murder of SDPI leader K S Shan, allegedly by RSS activists; this, in turn, followed the killing of RSS worker Nandu Krishna by SDPI men a few months earlier. Though comprehensive data on political murders is not available, according to a report citing police records, 172 people were killed for political reasons in Kerala between 2000 and 2017. State records show that between May 2016, when the Pinarayi Vijayan-led government took over, and April 2022, as many as 53 political murders took place. Among the victims, 21 belonged to the BJP/RSS, 15 to the CPM, and 17 to other parties including Congress, Muslim League and SDPI.

Hence the Mavelikkara court's sentence, though harsh, should be seen as a precedent for how the perpetrators of pre-planned, diabolic political murders should be dealt with. The only sore point is that the trial for the murder of SDPI's Shan is yet to begin. While the Ranjith case verdict has set off a debate, posts threatening the judge have appeared on social media and four people have been arrested for it, highlighting the sensitivity surrounding the case. Political murders are among the most heinous and there must be an end to this vicious cycle. The sheer senselessness apart, the idea that those subscribing to a different ideology do not deserve to live is abominable and has no place in a civilised society. The verdict is a sound and clear message that it will not be easy to get away with such murders.

VIJAY'S POLL VEHICLE NEEDS OWN COURSE

ENDING months of speculation, actor Vijay announced his entry into electoral politics on Friday, launching his Thamizhaga Vetri Kazhagam and hinting at an end to his successful film career. The 49-year-old, among the most bankable stars in the country, will be attempting to emulate the career of AIADMK founder M G Ramachandran. He is hardly the first in this attempt. Rajinikanth spent a chunk of his film career hinting at a political entry, only to withdraw on the grounds of age and health after years of suspense. Among those who took the plunge, only Vijayakanth made a short-lived mark. Kamal Haasan, once the least expected political candidate from the film firmament, has been at it for five years now, with limited gains.

However, unlike others, Vijay is making the shift at the peak of his film career and at a relatively younger age. His fans, too, skew younger. He has peppered his films with political commentary for several years now and made little secret of his ambitions—showing up at protest sites, offering support to students, and energising his fan clubs to work with local communities. While launching his political party, Vijay took aim at political corruption—a common theme in many of his movies, aimed ostensibly at the Dravidian majors—and communalism, seeming to offer a middle path to the people of Tamil Nadu. Beyond this, he offered little hint of what he and his party stand for, of their goals beyond bringing in 'change'. Just as well then that he says his party will sit out the upcoming parliamentary polls and focus on the 2026 assembly elections.

Vijay's political success will depend on several factors, especially his ability to play the long game if he aims to become a viable alternative to the DMK and AIADMK, which garnered a combined vote share of close to 80 percent in the 2021 assembly polls. While the MGR example is quoted often, especially by those outside the state, it is often forgotten that he grew alongside the Dravidian movement even as he grew the movement through his films. Vijay has made several nods to MGR's legacy through his films. While his fans may see in him a worthy inheritor, politically he ought to forge his own way ahead.

QUICK TAKE

THE POLITICS OF VERBING

CUNNING linguists have mangled common nouns into verbs for centuries. People have buttered their bread and laced their shoes for long. Henry Fowler called such constructions "cries of anguish". Verbing or verbification of proper nouns, though, is a more recent trend. Pop culture supplied the names as Americans Houdinied out of tight spaces or Cagneyed a fight. In our polarised times, it's politics that is leading verbification. You are Israeled if someone asks you to give them what is yours and, if you refuse, takes it with impunity. You are Nitished if someone betrays you. So we can verily ask: now that Soren has Lalued his way, will Kejriwal be Sorened?

Parties of all stripes have wooed the Bihar chief minister for long because of his vote bank. For the Socialists, the stripes ceased to matter long back

THE CONSTANT COURTSHIP OF NITISH KUMAR

RADHIKA RAMASESHAN

Columnist and political commentator

NITISH Kumar's inconstancy—the latest demonstration being the alacrity with which he dumped the INDIA alliance and embraced the BJP-led NDA again in a little over a year—was cruelly mocked on social media. Yet, the 'Paltu Ram' nickname that has stuck to him means little in the larger context.

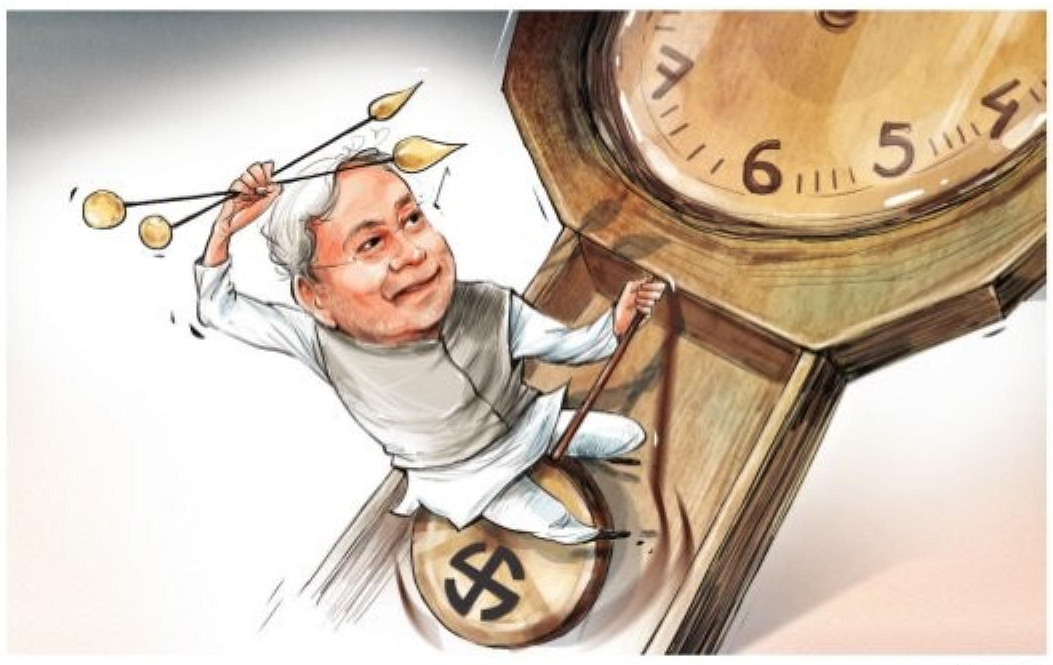
Last Sunday, he was sworn in as the Bihar chief minister for the ninth time in 24 years. Whether the new supporting cast is deemed communal or secular is inconsequential to the leaders of the Socialist vintage birthed by Ram Manohar Lohia. They have been unabashedly into power politics in the name of empowering the subalterns neglected by pro-upper-caste parties; that is, before Mandal altered the socio-political dynamics of the Hindi heartland.

Recall that in 1993, wise political commentators had predicted the BJP had again become "untouchable" after the Babri mosque demolition in the previous December. The BJP's precursor, the Bharatiya Jana Sangh, had earned infamy for Mahatma Gandhi's assassination, though it was founded three years after 1948. The pundits said no party, even the ideologically fickle Socialists, would keep it company for long.

Yet in 1994, BSP leader Mayawati crossed the line drawn by the secular establishment when she took the BJP's support to head a minority government in Uttar Pradesh. In November 1995, when the BJP hosted a plenary session in Mumbai, Nitish and his senior George Fernandes were unveiled before a huge gathering as the party's new allies. They had floated the Samata Party, an offshoot of the Janata Dal, which had Lalu Prasad. Earlier that year in Delhi, the BJP had iterated its commitment to three core issues—uniform civil code, abrogation of Article 370 and Ram temple in Ayodhya. But that did not deter Nitish or Fernandes. Secularism as an article of faith had started to lose credence.

Whenever the BJP signed a power-sharing pact with the Samata Party, which morphed into the Janata Dal (United), both gained big. The BJP's core upper caste base—which is not so substantial in Bihar, unlike in UP—with Nitish's backward caste Kurmi-Koeri following, augmented with the votes of the extremely backward castes, made for a winning combine.

In the 2009 Lok Sabha elections, which were fought in tandem by the BJP and JD(U), they won 32 seats and cornered 37.97 percent of the vote share. In the 2019 parliamentary polls, the BJP, JD(U) and Lok Janshakti Party combine won all but one of Bihar's 40 seats; the other went to the Congress. Together, their vote share was a daunting 54.34 percent. When in the middle of these two elections, Nitish broke away from the BJP in 2014 because of Narendra Modi's leadership and the concomitant alienation of Muslims it caused, Nitish won just two of the 38 seats he contested, with a 16.04 percent vote share. The Modi wave overwhelmed every other party.



SOURAV ROY

The trends in the state polls, however, were less daunting for the non-BJP spectrum. In 2020, the NDA—which in Bihar included JD(U) and four other parties—just about crossed the halfway mark in the 243-member assembly, with 125 MLAs and 37.26 percent of the votes. Even then, the BJP emerged as the second largest party after the Rashtriya Janata Dal, picking up 74 of the 110 seats it fought. The JD(U) was the third largest.

Aware that its partnership with the JD(U) is mutually beneficial, the BJP brass invested in getting Nitish back despite intermittent spells of acrimony. Top functionaries from both sides worked on bringing about a rapprochement, which began in September 2022 when Nitish attended a dinner hosted by the prime minister for G20 delegates in Delhi. Other CMs were invited too—M K Stalin of Tamil Nadu and Hemant Soren of Jharkhand, now in the INDIA fold, showed up. But Nitish's presence was more striking because he had boycotted the PM's official functions after dumping the BJP for a second time in 2022 to team up with RJD.

There was another sign that Nitish had not irrevocably severed his ties with the BJP. His party MP, Harivansh Narayan Singh, carried on as the Rajya Sabha deputy chairperson. Nobody asked how this came to pass. Not even when Nitish took the initiative in June 2023 to found the INDIA bloc, worked hard to get the regional players on board, and signalled he had a big stake in the endeavour's success.

But such an alliance was rooted in competing interests. The regional parties flaunted leaders such as Mamata Banerjee and Arvind Kejriwal, were unprepared to accept the Congress's stewardship, least of all Rahul Gandhi's, and were sceptical of Nitish's ambitions to eventually head INDIA and possibly be declared the PM candidate. At the last INDIA meeting on January 13, Nitish rejected an offer to become its convenor after Mamata Banerjee, Uddhav Thackeray and Akhilesh Yadav boycotted the session. Nitish saw that as a vote of no-confidence in his leadership and an affront to his "status".

As Rahul Gandhi embarked on the second phase of his countrywide peregrination from the northeast, it became apparent that he was indifferent to repairing the cracks and restoring a semblance of credibility to INDIA. Constituent after constituent made it clear that the Congress would have to engage with them in the seat-sharing negotiations on their terms. The Congress does not command respect or inspire fear.

The political wind changed direction. The BJP's electoral success in Rajasthan, Madhya Pradesh and Chhattisgarh against the odds and the high-decibel sanctification of the Ram temple enhanced the NDA's prospects and diminished INDIA's. If the assembly wins re-established the BJP's primacy in the heartland, the Ayodhya celebration not only re-mobilised the traditional pro-Hindutva votaries, but added a larger constituency sworn to faith.

To top it, Narendra Modi pulled a rabbit out of his hat—the conferment of the Bharat Ratna on Karpoori Thakur, the former Bihar CM and Socialist icon who had originally championed backward caste empowerment in the north before Mandal.

Voters are varied across the vast swath of the heartland. Religion persuades most sections to vote the BJP in UP, but caste often predominates in Bihar. In this cauldron, the BJP's astuteness was in sensing Nitish's restiveness with opposition politics and giving him an alibi to rejoin the NDA after the award bestowed on Thakur.

But with half a dozen allies in Bihar, the BJP will face a problem of plenty in the coming elections. Will Nitish make the gains he hoped for?

LAYING FOUNDATIONS FOR A DEVELOPED ECONOMY

CHANDRAJIT BANERJEE

Director General, the Confederation of Indian Industry

INDIA stands as a shining star amid the dull landscape of slowing global growth. Its economic strategy of fiscal prudence and capital expenditure-led growth has received global acclaim.

India has also redefined the paradigm of citizen welfare, with a focus on providing access to basic amenities and services to all on a universal basis, including affordable housing, rations, electricity, clean cooking fuel and drinking water, access to quality and affordable health care and education, and more. The welfare programmes aim at empowerment through a women-led development model for addressing gender inequalities and giving access to credit, including to the tiniest of economic entities with no credit history such as the street vendors and artisans etc. This paradigm change has indeed made India's growth broad-based and inclusive. The interim budget takes forward all these.

The Confederation of Indian Industries (CII) was expecting the interim budget to focus on fiscal prudence, capex-led growth and programmes and schemes to support the most vulnerable sections of the society in a manner that has an overall positive impact on India's long-term economic growth, resilience and inclusion. The interim budget has delivered on all these counts.

With a fiscal deficit of 5.8 percent for 2023-24, the government has achieved beyond the target of 5.9 percent it had set for itself in the last budget. The 2025-25 fiscal deficit target of 5.1 percent, which is much better than what was widely expected, reassures us that India is resolutely on the path towards achieving a 4.5 percent fiscal deficit by 2025-26. Fiscal prudence is important for macroeconomic stability and helps build economic resilience at a time when the global economy is facing uncertainties in a geopolitically turbo-charged world.

The budget provides continued support to growth through a capex outlay of ₹11.11 lakh crore, an increase of 11.1 percent over the last year's base which was quite high due to tripling of the capital expenditure outlay over the past four years. The support for state capex continues, with the budget providing ₹1.3 lakh crore towards interest-free, 50-year loan and ₹75,000 crore for milestone-linked reforms at the state level.

There are notable signs of recovery in private investments and improvement in capacity utilisation in some sectors This is clearly reflected in multiple CII surveys. Higher capex from both the Centre and the states will help boost the recovery in the private capex, another important engine of economic growth.

The proposals on partnering with states to take forward the next generation of reforms in addition to the reforms-linked capex support is a very important intervention that will help unlock India's true growth potential. Support to states for faster development of aspirational districts and blocks as also the stress on promoting tourism, along with special focus on the development of India's eastern region, will not only drive growth but also lead to a regionally-balanced economic development.

GOI

This interim budget has achieved much within constraints. Committing to build more affordable houses, supporting R&D, renewable power and women's self-help groups, and providing more for capital expenditure will lay the foundation for a more Atmanirbhar Bharat

The schemes to boost rural economy will enhance rural incomes and lead to an increase in rural demand, in addition to driving inclusive growth. The emphasis on promoting public-private investment in post-harvest activities will attract food-processing industries and help raise farmers' incomes and generate jobs.

The initiative for achieving atmanirbharta for oil seeds, comprehensive programme for supporting dairy farmers, boost to aquaculture through a stepped-up push to Pradhan Mantri Matsya Sampada Yojana and setting up of five integrated aquaparks will all help add value in the agri and allied sectors, making a direct and positive impact on the rural growth and incomes. This would further fuel India's consumption growth.

Welfare measures such as building an additional two crore houses under the Pradhan Mantri Awas Yojana (Grameen), new housing scheme for the middle class, and revising targets for Lakhpati Didi programme from 2 crore to 3 crore will all contribute towards raising the incomes and standards of living of the vulnerable sections of the population. This will also help expand the rapidly growing Indian consumer market.

In addition to demand generation through capex, interventions to energise the rural economy through demand-generating welfare measures, the interim budget has many other provisions to cheer the industry. The ₹1-lakh-crore corpus to provide long-term financing or refinancing at low or nil interest rates will help the industry step up R&D and technology adoption, which will help it become globally competitive and prepare for the technology-driven economy of the future.

The commitment to facilitate access to credit for Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises, help with skill development while providing relevant technology, and a facilitative regulatory environment will help boost the country's manufacturing ecosystem. Re-invigorating the financial sector for scale, capacity, skills and regulatory framework will ensure adequate financing to all sectors of the economy, including industry. The interim budget also reiterates the move towards atmanirbharta through the proposal to launch a new scheme for strengthening deep-tech technologies for the defence sector.

Sustainability has attracted high attention in the interim budget. As India gears up to be a clean and green economy, providing viability gap funding for 1 GW of offshore wind energy, enhancing coal gasification and liquefaction capacity, and strengthening the e-vehicle ecosystem through support to manufacturing and charging infrastructure are all important initiatives.

Overall, the provisions in the interim budget are in the right direction towards unlocking India's growth potential.

E-courts support

Ref: Supreme Court budget cut, boost to e-court projects (Feb 2). The allocation for the Supreme Court in the Union interim budget was reduced from ₹517.28 crore to ₹485.49 crore. However, it was a prudent move to launch the e-courts project with an allocation of ₹7,000 crore. The e-courts project will enable a smoother and faster justice delivery system. The step is timely, given the huge pendency of cases across courts.

BJP's confidence

The interim budget presented on Thursday contained no pre-poll sops. By promising a detailed roadmap for Viksit Bharat in the full budget to be presented in July, the ruling BJP appears to be fully confident of returning to power in this year's elections. This is despite increasing unemployment and India's continuing poor performance in human development indices.

Two ministers

My friend's wife saw Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman presenting the interim budget on TV and said, "She is wearing Pochampalli sari." My friend said that's my wife's analysis of the budget. I said, "That's a home minister's analysis of finance minister, what can a common man like you do?"

Fractured opposition

Ref: Oppn hopes floated and shot in Patna (Feb 2). Mamata Banerjee appears to be confident of her party's prospects in the upcoming Lok Sabha polls and wants to keep away from the Congress. So is the case in Punjab, Tamil Nadu, Maharashtra, Bihar and other states where local stalwarts are fully aware of their strengths and the negatives of closely associating with the grand old party.

Soren's arrest

Ref: Soren in 1-day custody, no guv call in new CM (Feb 2). With the arrest of Soren, the opposition has once again accused the central government of misusing central agencies. The opposition must stop making such accusations. If their hands are clean, why are they afraid of the central probe agencies?

Pacer Shamar rewarded with contract upgrade

After his heroics in the West Indies' second-Test win over Australia, pacer Shamar Joseph is getting an upgrade to his playing contract. Joseph is now tied to a retainer deal with Cricket West Indies. He previously held a franchise contract and had not played international cricket before the two-Tes series against Australia, during which he took 7-68 in Brisbane.

India batter Yashasvi Jaiswal celebrates his century on Day 1 of the 2nd Test on Friday | PTI

JaisWALL of India

Even with wickets falling around him, opener remained calm to hit his highest Test score

SWAROOP SWAMINATHAN @ Visakhapatnam

INDIA wanted to book a bed and breakfast on a pitch high on batting nutrients (read: run-making). By lunch, those plans were in some danger of unravelling as both Rohit Sharma and Shubman Gill had failed to capitalise on a good batting surface. The jeopardy was dialled up to 10 as the batting line-up was low on form, total runs and experience.

However, experience is one of those things that's difficult to quantify on most days. Sure, it counts for something but what exactly? Perhaps, like Ben Stokes said, it's overrated. On Friday, Yashasvi Jaiswal put his hands up with a commanding display to put India in an okay-ish position on the opening day of the second Test. On a day when some of the other batters were happy to play the long game, Jaiswal's naturally attacking instincts took over. A day before the Test, batting coach Vikram Rathour said he wanted his wards to show instinct. The southpaw showed it from the word go, with two of his first three scoring shots being boundaries, both coming front of square off Joe Root, who shared the new ball with James Anderson.

His opening partner, though, was being cautious. Perhaps, it was a natural by-product of a line-up lacking an elder statesman apart from him. He was also cautious of wanting to make the best use of the surface after winning the toss for the first time in six Tests. Whatever it was, it didn't look all that convincing. In the process, the hosts also failed to put a few boundary balls away.

The sucker punch came along as debutant Shoaib Bashir removed him, the fielder at leg-slip completing a low catch. With Rajat Patidar, on debut, and a Ravindra Jadeja-shaped hole in the middle-order, the onus was on the top order to stand up. It's why Rohit's experience as an opener was priceless. He has been the world's best in these conditions over the last three years. With him gone just after the first hour, the task to marshall it may have been on the likes of Gill or Shreyas Iyer. The former is seemingly the heir to the Virat Kohli throne while the latter is one of the best spin-hitters in this team. Both of them, worryingly from an Indian perspective, continued to bely those prophecies.

But it was Jaiswal -- the prince that was promised all along? – who married his uncluttered mind with unfettered shot-making to light up an already sun-kissed YSR ACA-VDCA Stadium. The authority that he displayed wouldn't have been out of place in a principal's office while speaking to an errant child. Whenever the spinners erred in line or length he was severe. He also used his feet several times -- a play that generally goes missing when his compatriots play that bowling type – to play the lofted stroke inside the V.

In fact, he got to his 100 when he lofted Tom Hartley over long-on. The celebrations told their own story: a few polite kisses to the crowd, a look skywards and some genteel outward synchronised movement of both arms. But it's not that he wasn't tested. You are always tested as an opening batter when the guy with the new ball is Anderson.

What he lacks in pace, he makes up for it in accuracy, guile and skills; three of the most important currencies for a fast bowler. He was circumspect in the morning session when the veteran came in from the Dr Vizzy End. There were a few occasions when the 22-year-old could have followed the trajectory of the ball but resisted the temptation to do so. In all of Anderson's subsequent spells, the 41-year-old was getting the ball to nibble a bit.

The end result? Out of the 179 (257b, 17x4, 5x6) he remained unbeaten on, only eight (47b, zero boundaries) came off against the pacer. Against the rest, he was like a human calculator, mind constantly working. What balls to leave? What deliveries to hit? How to work the angles? Even if Root put down two very hard chances at first slip, it was exactly the sort of innings both Rathour and coach Rahul Dravid had asked of their batters post that defeat at Hyderabad.

"There are young batters in our team who have not played much Test cricket," Rathour had said. "So, we need to be a bit patient with them. Batters like (Shubman) Gill, (Yashasvi) Jaiswal and (Shreyas) Iyer will eventually start getting big runs, I'm sure of it."

A few days later, the UP-born batter, playing only his second Test at home, vindicated the faith shown in him.

The hosts will have breakfast on Saturday morning at 336/6. If they have designs of enjoying their lunch, Jaiswal's ambitions should be beyond a double.

SCOREBOARD

India 1st innings: Jaiswal batting 179, Sharma c Pope b Bashir 14, Gill c Foakes b Anderson 34, Iyer c Foakes b Hartley 27, Patidar b Ahmed 32, Axar c Ahmed b Bashir 27, Bharat c Bashir b Ahmed 17, Ashwin batting 5; Extras: (nb 1) 1; Total: (6 wickets in 93 ovrs) 336; FoW: 1-40, 2-89, 3-179, 4-249, 5-301, 6-330; Bowling: Anderson 17-3-30-1, Root 14-0-71-0, Hartley 18-2-74-1, Bashir 28-0-100-2, Ahmed 16-2-61-2.

Two debutants impress on the undercard

SWAROOP SWAMINATHAN @ Visakhapatnam

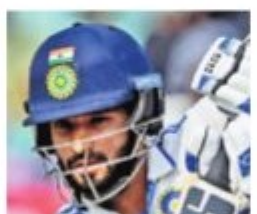
NORMAL.

You know what's normal? Changing your clothes once a day. Or brushing your teeth twice a day. You know what isn't normal. Walking out to bat for India for the first time after turning 30. Sleeping peacefully on the night before your big morning.

For Rajat Patidar, though, it was 'normal'. "I slept well last night," he told the media after Day One of the second Test against England. When he was asked to describe what he felt as he was walking out to bat, he termed it 'normal'. "Going into the middle, there was no pressure as I have played lots of domestic cricket," he said. "It was normal."

It sort of explains not just him but his family. They are laid back and have been that way for a long time. "If he doesn't make his debut tomorrow (Friday), then he will play for India some other day," was how Manohar, Rajat's father, put it to this daily.

Considering this management — like the previous regime — have placed an emphasis on seniority and first-come-first serve, Patidar was always going to be given a debut as soon as KL Rahul withdrew after the first Test. So it transpired when Zaheer Khan handed him his shiny India cap less than an hour before the start of play.



On a strip full of runs, it wouldn't have been a surprise if the debutant had to wait a full day to bat. But both Shubman Gill and Shreyas Iyer brought about their own downfalls in a period sandwiched by lunch. If Virat Kohli and KL Rahul come back for the third Test, it wouldn't be a stretch to say Patidar, Shreyas and Gill would be in a three-way tussle for one spot.

On the evidence of what he did, he will at least be in that conversation. He looked calm, assured and very sure of himself. He also brought out the broom to reverse Joe Root for a boundary. Off the next ball, a stylish looking cover drive yielded the same result.

Just when he was beginning to settle in, he played on to Rehan Ahmed. If anything, he played it with very soft hands and the ball rolled back to disturb the bail before he could kick it away.

Considering he made his domestic debut in 2015 and has had to wait for a long time, does he have any regrets? "Waiting for so long is common in Indian cricket," he said, smiling. "There are a lot of players. I was just focussing on things that are in my hands. So, at the age of 30 I came here, feeling pretty good."

Another cricketer feeling good would be Shoaib Bashir. Last week, a visa issue kept him from entering the country. On his first day of Test cricket, sending back the country's captain is the sort of statement you can make against the authorities for the delay in processing it. He called the moment 'incredible'. "It's been a very special day," he said after the day's play. "For all that I have been through in the last two to three years, it made it even more special to get Rohit Sharma out, my first wicket... feels incredible. He's a quality player, one of the best in the world and a great player of spin as well."

When former England spinner Monty Panesar spoke to this daily before the series, he singled out Bashir as an 'x-factor'. You can see why. His height and the way he puts his shoulders on the ball could be a point of difference. Usually, visiting spinners take time in adjusting to the conditions (Tom Hartley from the first Test is an example).

But Bashir was driving the ball into the surface at speeds well in excess of 90kph even in his opening spell. "Always been above average height, 6ft, 4inches does help with the spin, I guess... I could have been a bit more consistent with my lines but I'm just going to look back on this day and think getting Rohit out, I think that's all that matters really." Two players with lots of stories who played the undercard to Yashasvi Jaiswal's main event.

Savita & Co. look for fresh start in Pro League at home

KALYANI MANGALE @ Chennai

Coach Janneke Schopman with India women players in Bhubaneswar | HOCKEY INDIA

IT has been a long three weeks for the Indian women's hockey team since their loss in the bronze medal fixture of the Olympic Qualifiers in Ranchi. All said and done, the Savita Punia-led team, hurting from missing out on the Paris 2024 berth, needed to dust themselves off and get ready for the e FIH Pro League, starting at the Kalinga Stadium in Bhubaneswar.

"As a team we are hurting still, it has been a tough two weeks," chief coach Janneke Schopman told media ahead of the first fixture against China on Friday. "We have done a lot of talking and thinking about what happened and why it happened. We want to show that we are a good team and we can play against good teams as well. We won't get the Olympics back but we can only move forward and that is our plan here, to move forward, to play to our strengths, and to show that we can play well," she added.

Despite the gloom and doom of the missed opportunities, one of the positives for India has been the inclusion of their vice-captain Vandana Kataria, who missed out on the Olympic Qualifiers because of a cheekbone fracture. With the experience of more than 300 fixtures for India, her presence will make India's attack more potent. Despite the continuous efforts from the likes of Salima Tete and Neha Goyal, India could not score a goal in the bronze medal match against Japan. Kataria's inclusion would certainly help to convert those chances into goals. The addition of the local player, Jyoti Chhatri, fresh off the silver medal win in the Women's Hockey5s World Cup, could also help the team as the 20-year-old has proved her mettle on different levels. After their opener against China, India will play world no. 1 Netherlands on Sunday.

With the retirement of Deep Grace Ekka, India are left with limited resources in the drag flick department as currently Deepika and Gurjit Kaur are the only recognised options capable of executing the routines. This very aspect of the game hurt the hosts in the Olympic qualifiers as they could not convert a penalty corner despite getting nine against Japan. Schopman once again called for more depth regarding the drag flicks.

"We need potentially more depth in our penalty corner. That is a concern in women's hockey in India. If you look at any other country in the top 10, they have 5-6 drag flickers and we do not."

As the winner of the Pro League would earn direct qualification for the 2026 World Cup, all fixtures are equally important for every team. India's chance to dust off the major heartbreak and embrace the fresh beginning starts now.

Davis Cup: Visitors firm favourite against Pak

AGENCIES @Islamabad

INDIA will be without their top singles players but the visitors, who have come to Pakistan after 60 years, will still start as favourites in the historic Davis Cup World Group I play-off tie, which is being played within a restricted environment due to security concerns. India have never lost to Pakistan in Davis Cup history, winning all seven ties so far, and the trend is likely to continue.

However, the hosts are expected to put up a good fight through their biggest stars, Aisam-ul-haq Qureshi and Aqeel Khan, after choosing to play on grass courts. If Pakistan stood a chance against India, it had to be on the grass courts because both Aisam and Aqeel are tremendous fighters, and this surface brings the best out of them.

The courts in Islamabad are fast with low bounce, and it made sense that N Sriram Balaji, who is a doubles specialist, has been asked to play singles on the opening day along with the team's best singles player, Ramkumar Ramanathan.

India had an option in the form of Niki Poonacha but he is taller than Balaji, and on low-bounce grass courts, taller players struggle more as they have to go down a lot to pick up balls, and that could disturb the rhythm of a player. This strategy was successfully used by the iconic Leander Paes to torment the Europeans, who would come to India to compete in Davis Cup. Also, Balaji has the experience of playing at a good level and that will give him the confidence to handle the pressure of playing against Pakistan on their home soil.

Draw: Feb 3: 1st singles: Ramkumar vs Aisam, 2nd singles :Aqeel vs Balaji; Feb 4: Doubles: Barkatullah/Muzammil vs Bhambri/Myneni, 1st reverse singles: Ramkumar vs Aqeel, 2nd singles: Aisam vs Balaji.

Chaliha enters Thailand Masters semifinal

BANGKOK: India's Ashmita Chaliha dished out a brilliant performance as she beat Ester Nurumi Wardoyo of Indonesia to storm into the women's singles semifinals of the Thailand Masters badminton tournament. Chaliha remained the only Indian in the fray after Mithun Manjunath lost his men's singles quarterfinals while the women's doubles pairs of Treesa Jolly and Gayatri Gopichand also exited.

Boxers Amit, Ishmeet & Sachin move to semis

NEW DELHI: Indian boxers Amit Kumar (63.5kg) and Ishmeet Singh (75kg) reached the Boxam International Tournament semifinals in La Nucia, Spain. Sachin Kumar (80kg) too moved to the last four after receiving a walkover. Amit beat Mexico's Miguel Angel Martinez & will face Uzbekistan's Ruslan Abdullaev next. Ishmeet knocked out Didac Lopez Gomez 4-1 to set up a clash with Poland's Michal Jarlinski.

India thrash Bhutan 10-0 in SAFF U-19 C'ship

DHAKA: A rampaging India hammered Bhutan 10-0 to begin their SAFF U-19 Women's Championship campaign on a rollicking note with Pooja scoring four goals here. Pooja struck in the 31st, 58th, 59th and 90+4 minute while Sibani Devi (8th, 19th and 36th) scored a first-half hat-trick. Striker Sulanjana Raul (53rd), India women will play their next match against Bangladesh on Sunday.

Majority of states may give Jaipur nat'ls a miss

ENS @ Chennai

AROUND six state units that voted in the Wrestling Federation of India (WFI) elections held on December 21 last year have sent their teams for the senior national championship, organised by the ad-hoc committee, which began in Jaipur on Friday. Among them, two associations - J&K and Jharkhand - also competed in the nationals organised by the WFI in Pune. Others are Punjab, Himachal Pradesh, Odisha and Assam.

Sources claimed that apart from the Railway Sports Promotion Board (RSPB) and Services Sports Control Board (SSCB) wrestlers, the Jaipur event is unlikely to witness participation from most of the affiliated units of the WFI. "As most of the top wrestlers are either employed with the RSPB or SSCB, most of them like Vinesh Phogat will compete in Jaipur. But other than them, wrestlers from other states may not compete," sources said.

As far participation of Antim Panghal is concerned as claimed by the ad-hoc panel, sources asserted that the wrestler is nursing an injury and is unlikely to compete. The competition will start with bouts in men's Greco-Roman category on Saturday followed by women's wrestling and men's freestyle on Sunday and Monday.

Sai Kishore, Ajith bundle out Goa

AGENCIES @ Porvorim

SLOW left arm orthodox bowlers — R Sai Kishore 4/73) and Ajith Ram (3/46) — shared seven wickets between them as Tamil Nadu bundled out Goa for 241 on Day One of their Elite Group C Ranji Trophy match here in Porvorim on Friday.

Opener Suyash Prabhudessai and Krishnamurthy Siddharth scored 194 and 69 runs respectively for the hosts as other batters failed to read Tamil Nadu spinners after Goa opted to bat first. The visitors were 20 for loss at stumps.

Karnataka squander advantage vs Railways

SURAT: The stuttering Karnataka batters squandered the advantage given by their bowlers, slipping to 90/6 at close of play on the first day of their Ranji Trophy Elite Group C match against Railways.

However, the Karnataka bowlers had a good day in the park, bundling out Railways for 155. Pacer Vasuki Koushik (3/22) and 17-year-old left-arm spinner Hardik Raj (3/28) derailed Railways.

During their reply, the Karnataka batters' focus was taken away a bit by the absence of their prolific captain Mayank Agarwal after he was ruled out of this match.

Agarwal could not travel to Surat as he felt burning sensation in his mouth and throat after accidentally consuming a spurious liquid from a pouch during his flight out of Agartala a couple of days back. He is recovering in Bengaluru.

India storm into U-19 World Cup semifinal

AGENCIES @Bloemfontein

CONTRASTING hundreds by Sachin Dhas and skipper Uday Saharan were the twin pillars on which India built their commanding 132-run win over Nepal in their final Super Six Group 1 match, which also carried them to the semifinals of the ICC Under-19 World Cup on Friday. Dhas (116, 101 balls) and Saharan (100, 107 balls), who added 215 off 202 balls, lifted India from a tricky 62/3 to a formidable 297/5 after they opted to bat first.

In reply, Nepal got off to a brisk start but lost the momentum when Raj Limbani broke the opening partnership. Left-arm spinner Saumy Pandey, who now has 16 wickets to be placed at the second spot in the tournament's highest wicket-taker list, sparked the collapse with figures of 10-1-29-4.

The tournament favourites, who now have eight points, then limited the Himalayan nation to 165 for nine and in the semis, India are all set to face South Africa at Benoni on Tuesday. Brief scores: India 297/5 in 50 ovs (Sachin Dhas 116, Uday Saharan 100; Gulsan Jha 3/56) bt Nepal 165/9 in 50 ovs (Dev Khanal 33; Saumy Pandey 4/29, Arshin Kulkarni 2/18).

'GENE EDITING OF CROPS TO END GLOBAL HUNGER IS PROPAGANDA'

INDIA SHOULD PUT ITS MONEY, TIME AND ENERGY INTO NATURAL BREEDING, WHICH CAN BE AUGMENTED WITH NON-GM MARKER ASSISTED SELECTION BIOTECH, SUGGESTS PROF MICHAEL ANTONIOU

DAYS after 35 Nobel Laureates and over 1,000 scientists signed a letter to promote New GM Techniques (NGT), Prof Michael Antoniou, molecular geneticist and expert in genetic engineering technologies at the King's College London, explains why it is wrong to promote NGT.

In an email interview with Jitendra Choubey, Prof Antoniou advises India to believe in basic science and not repeat the mistakes made by the European Union by ignoring the health and environmental implications of the NGT. Excerpts:

1 How is the New Genomic Technique (NGT) different from the Genetically Modified (GM) Technology?

NGT is another form of GM technology - an artificial laboratory method for altering the genetic makeup of a crop or animal. The main difference between NGT and older style transgenic genetic modification (GM) methods is that in NGT developers try to make a targeted genetic alteration of an existing gene or the targeted insertion of a foreign transgene. The technology claims 'precision' and only "mimics" what happens in nature. Hence, the argument goes, why regulate something that can occur naturally?

All genes work as part of a network or ecosystem and therefore changing just one gene can have major ramifications to the biology/ biochemistry of an organism. In the case of NGTs and old style transgenic GM methods, many gene functions will be altered. This will consequently lead to changes in global patterns of gene function, altered biochemistry and composition, including production of novel toxins and allergens.

Thus, there is little difference in the end between NGTs and transgenic techniques; both use the same genetic modification processes (plant tissue culture, plant cell genetic transformation), which invariably result in genome-wide, large scale unintended mutations. The outcome from the application of NGTs is far from predictable and thus a comprehensive, in depth safety evaluation is required before marketing.

2 Are there any proper field trials to assess the negative impact of the New Genomic Technique, such as production of unexpected toxins or allergens or altered nutritional value?

Unfortunately, there are no studies published assessing the health and environmental impacts of any gene edited foods, including those already marketed (e.g. gene edited tomatoes in Japan). This is a shocking and dangerous knowledge gap that makes a mockery of any claims of gene edited product safety. Negligently, advocates of NGT deregulation use this absence of evidence as evidence of absence of health risks. This is totally unscientific as any position should be based on solid experimental evidence, not presumptions, assumptions and beliefs.

What we do know is that there are numerous studies showing potentially health damaging effects, particularly with respect to kidney and liver function, stemming from the consumption of first generation transgenic foods.

3 Do we need to regulate the process of gene editing instead of the end products or both to guard against biodiversity loss and challenges to food security?

Process as well as end product regulation is essential. This is because taking into account the process of genetic modification informs of how things can go wrong as well as how you intend them to go. Coal or oil-fired power stations and solar panels produce the same electricity but you cannot claim that the environmental impact of fossil fuel power stations and solar panels is the same. Hence, governments enact different regulations for the "processes" of fossil fuel power stations and solar panel arrays to protect the environment.

Product developers demand deregulation of end product but negligently ignore the genome-wide, large scale mutational effects of the gene editing process and thus put health and environment at risk.

4 A study shows gene editing produces more than the natural processes and can potentially end global hunger. How do you see this claim?

There is no scientific evidence that gene editing of crops either produces higher yields or robustly confers disease resistance, pathogen resistance or greater tolerance to environmental (abiotic) stresses such as heat, drought, salinity, etc.

What we do know is that traits such as higher yields, and robust disease resistance, pathogen resistance and greater tolerance to environmental (abiotic) stresses are genetically complex traits; i.e., have the functioning of many gene families at their basis. This type of massive, complex and balanced combinatorial gene function is far beyond what gene editing and NGTs in general can provide, which is the manipulation of one or a few genes. Only natural breeding can bring about the large combinations of genes to confer complex traits. Thus, claims by developers of gene editing of crops (and animals) that they can end global hunger are not supported by science and is nothing short of propaganda and even emotional blackmail to try and win support from governments. Indeed, we must bear in mind that problems of global hunger is not due to a lack of food but access to food. Producing more whilst not solving the problem of poverty is not going to help.

Perils of banking on fossil fuels

JITENDRA CHOUBEY @New Delhi

A new report shows that nine major Asian banks, including three of India, are open to doing business in coal – the dirtiest of all fossil fuels. These three banks are State Bank of India, Axis Bank and Bank of Baroda. The other Asian banks are from Indonesia (Bank Mandiri, Rakyat and Negara) and Japan (Mizuho, SMBC and MUFG).

A Netherland-based international non-profit BankTrack, which tracks commercial banks and activities they finance, put out a report titled, "Coal Havens: The policy loopholes keeping coal finance alive in Asia", analysing how Asia's growth engine is driven by massive coal consumption despite the world agreeing to transition away from fossil fuels at COP 28 in December 2023.

While the report focuses on the policy positions of the Asian banks, it also highlights that major US and European financiers are still investing in coal. Barclays, Citi, Standard Chartered, Deutsche Bank and others are exploiting the relatively opaque and unscrutinised finance routes of corporate lending and underwriting to finance the mining and burning of coal across the region.

What does the report say?

The report surveyed the finance policies on coal projects of 30 major banks across India, Indonesia, Japan, Malaysia, Philippines, Singapore, South Korea, Taiwan and Thailand. These banks have over USD 8 trillion in assets under management collectively. The report also analysed the expansion plans of the companies - whether the bank applies thresholds on coal mining and coal power companies, its coal finance phase-out strategy and the exclusion of metallurgical coal.

The report finds three trends on how coal is still getting money. It reveals bank finance is increasing for "captive" coal power (coal-fired power that is off the energy grid and used for industrial activities like smelting). Further, project-specific finance is being dropped in favour of corporate lending and underwriting, and coal project developers are increasingly looking to domestic and regional banks and private equity investors to finance their operations.

The report underlines the weaker policies of the banks that fail to exclude dirty fossil fuels from investment portfolios leaving the door open to continued investment in climate destruction.

Another research by the Delhi-based non-profit financial think tank Centre for Financial Accountability (CFA) shows that about 25-35% of Indian bank loans are exposed to carbon-intensive sectors, including coal, as per rating agency Moody. A recent survey of the Reserve Bank of India shows that a majority of the banks have not related their climate-related financial disclosures with any internationally accepted framework.

"Our own research finds that national financial institutions account for 93% of the sanctioned loans to coal-based power plants in India and the government-owned banks, including State Bank of India, still are the major lenders to privately owned coal plants," said Anirban Bhattacharya, team lead on national finance at the CFA.

"While it is good that RBI is surveying the modalities of green financing, it must take on much more of a regulatory than an advisory role if we are to be true to our climate responsibilities." he adds.

CHASING 'PARADISE'

Thailand is the place to be this weekend – like many Bengalureans who have packed their bags to watch rock band Coldplay live

MONIKA MONALISA

IN 2015, when Chris Martin, the lead singer of the rock band Coldplay, did an impromptu show at a pub in New Delhi, Samiksha Zutshi, who was then in college in the capital, had missed the opportunity to witness it live. So when Coldplay announced their Asia tour, she immediately started planning her visit. This weekend, Zutshi – who has been planning the trip since September – is in Bangkok for the concert happening on Feb 3. "With the visa-on-arrival option available, I felt this is the closest I can get to watching them live. Last time when they were in India, it was difficult for me to get tickets," says Zutshi, who bought an early-bird ticket for ₹15,000.

Like Zutshi, many Bengalureans are travelling to places like Singapore, Manila, and Thailand for concerts, extending them into holidays. City-based Smritika Surin is also in Bangkok to attend the concert today. "Coldplay is the main reason why my friends and I are in Bangkok. We are extending our stay and travelling to Phuket. I always love the experience in Thailand, so I wanted to spend a few days there before heading home," says Surin, whose friends went to Manila and Singapore for the concert.

According to travel agent Pritish Shah, there is an increase in the number of queries for Southeast Asian countries as a result of the Coldplay concert. "Watching Coldplay live is on the bucket list of many. This is the closest that Indians can get to experience the euphoria," says Shah, adding that while one group is making an extending holiday of the concert, others are going for two days just for the performance.

Women's group hosts live viewing of Union Budget

On February 1, when the Interim Union Budget was presented, Millennium Mams', a women's group championing financial literacy for urban women, hosted a live viewing of the session. During the interactive session, the women discussed the Budget's complexities along with a post-analysis session to equip themselves with the skills to navigate the world of finance. Jasbir Puravankara, treasurer of the organisation, applauded the Lakhpati Didi initiative, highlighting its alignment with their mission of women's empowerment. "Giving a boost to infrastructure outlay with ` 11.11 lakh crore is huge. Focus towards rural India does create an impact since developing rural India is the way to develop India." Dineet Dadu, president of the Bengaluru chapter of Millennium Mams' emphasised the Budget's attention on broad themes like social inclusivity, women empowerment, and alternative energy. "They have picked up key demographics like the poor, youth, women, and farmers since it's an election year. I like the fact that the research and innovation sector will be given a lot of boost," says Dadu.

FIT BIT

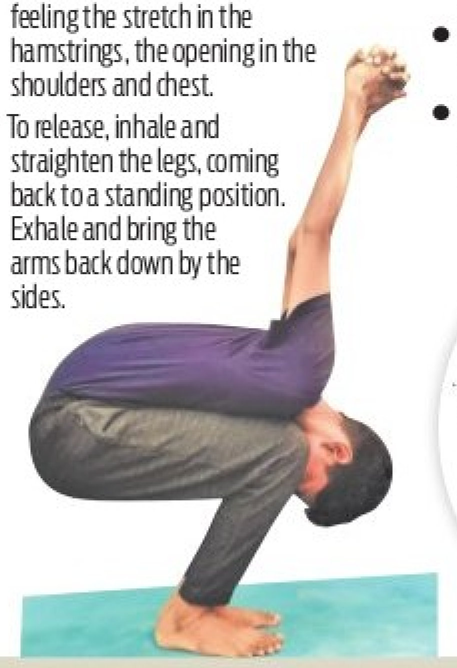
BADDHA HASTA KARNAPIDA UTKATASANA

(HANDS BOUND EAR PRESSURE FIERCE POSE)

This asana is called Raja Halasana (king plow pose) an advanced version of Halasana. It activates three chakras – Visuddha, purifies the body and mind, Manipura, controls vitality and balance of energy, and Svadhisthana fosters acceptance and promotes focus.

STEPS

- Stand in Tadasana (Mountain Pose) with feet hip-width apart and arms by the sides.
- Inhale, take the arms behind the back, bending the elbows and bringing the palms together in a prayer position.
- Exhale, bend forward from the hips.
- Bend the knees like sitting on a chair, and bring the hands above the head, gently pressing the palms against the back of the skull.
- Stretch the spine, balancing your weight in the heels and the knees in line parallel to toes.
- Hold the pose for several breaths, feeling the stretch in the hamstrings, the opening in the shoulders and chest.
- To release, inhale and straighten the legs, coming back to a standing position. Exhale and bring the arms back down by the sides.



BENEFITS

- Engages the muscles of the legs, quadriceps, hamstrings, and calves.
- Regular practise can help build strength and stability in the lower body.
- Balancing aspect of this pose challenges the practitioner to find stability and focus.
- Helps release tension and tightness, promotes flexibility and relieves lower back pain.
- This pose stretches the shoulders and chest.
- It counteracts the effects of hunching, promoting better posture and breathing.
- Promotes mental focus and concentration.
- Helps calm the mind and enhances mental focus.
- It can be a meditative posture, allowing practitioners to cultivate mindfulness and presence.

LIMITATIONS

People suffering from diarrhoea, asthma, heart condition, BP and herniated discs, should avoid this.

Pregnant women in their first trimester must practise this under the guidance of a yoga expert.

People with injuries around the knees, back, shoulder and hips, shouldn't practise this.

LIFE, SWEET & SOUR

OFTEN the Universe tries to put things in perspective for me. I tend to use my heart rather than my formidable brain. If I sound rather imperious, it is because I made a New Year resolution not to be self-effacing or tolerate disrespect.

I was advised by my 'healer' to read the book Women Who Love Too Much by Robin Norwood. The book explores the unhealthy relationships that some women find themselves in again and again, not necessarily only with their partners, but also with friends and relatives. Their relationship is needy, often invoking disrespect and a feeling of vulnerability.

Last year was a turning point and I am really proud that I managed to pull myself out of a rabbit hole of self-pity and despondency. I figured out that the older women grew, the less nonsense they took! In our late forties and early fifties we start losing the hormone estrogen that governs the feelings of empathy and sensitivity, basically the 'right hormones' for child-bearing and rearing! When we start losing estrogen we are essentially turning into men. Thus we don't give a 'sugar'. QED!

Gitanjali & Sandeep Maini, Regina Logar, George & Ritu Kuruvilla with Kiran Soans

My kids flew down over the last weekend as their best friend's father died suddenly as he was taking his morning walk. It was quite a shock as he was neither old nor ailing. It evoked a type of skepticism in us as we pondered over the uncertainty of life and how much we take for granted when alive. But sadness also brought immense joy as I got to meet our little munchkin again in less than a month! I have hung up my party shoes to spend all my time with her as she babbles her way into my heart. This too shall pass as she will zip back with her parents over the weekend.

Very reluctantly I tore myself away to honour George Kuruvilla and Kiran Soans' invitation to The Ritz-Carlton to watch the super-cute and talented Master Chef Regina Logar at an exclusive gastronomical event where she conjured up one of the best Mexican meals I have had the good fortune to partake so far. Her attention to detail was almost obsessive. Each course ensured that one's palate was titillated and surprised at the complexity of flavours. Of course both the 'Patrons'; the tequila and the hosts made sure our very entertaining and intimate table of a select few, had the maximum fun.

Chef-entrepreneur and culinary maverick Manu Chandra is a longtime close-friend. It was remiss of me not to go to his superlative restaurant Lupa sooner, and when I visited he showed his ire! After much 'sucking-up' he forgave me and introduced me to his superlative cuisine. Indescribably fabulous! You can't keep a genius down now can you?

DHANVEERRAH AND SANJANA ANAND TEAM UP FOR HAYAGRRIVA

A SHARADHAA

DHANVEERRAH, , the actor from Bazaar, and By 2 Love, last seen in Kaiva (now available on Prime), signs his next project while awaiting the release of Vaamana. Titled Hayagrriva, the film marks the directorial debut of Raghukumar OR. He previously served as an associate in Sudeep's Kotigobba 3 and contributed to films like Kannadakkagi Ondandu Otti, Seetha Circle, and Manedevaru. He has also directed a short film, The Bell. Now venturing into feature film direction, Raghukumar has unveiled the film's first look poster, teasing a concept that intertwines mythology and a crime set in modern times. According to the director, the movie propels us into the future by 40 years, exploring the consequences of a crime involving lords. With a blend of ancient tales and contemporary elements, the film is said to be a family entertainer along with a romantic track. Sanjana Anand plays the female lead, marking her first collaboration with Dhanveerrah.

Samruddhi Manjuanth, a distributor who has produced Life Jothe Ondu Selfie, who is bankrolling the project under the KVC Prouctions banner, presided over the muhurat on Friday The shoot is scheduled to commence on February 8 and will have Ravishankar playing a mythological character, along with Rangayana Raghu and Sadhu Kokila, Shruthi in pivotal roles. Hayagriva has Judah Sandy as the music director and Karthik S as the cinematographer.

The film marks Raghukumar's directorial debut, which is said to be a blend of mythology and contemporary times

Amol Patil to make directorial debut with Udaala

A rom-com actioner, film stars Prithvi Shamanur and Hrithika Shrinivas

CE FEATURES

AMOL Patil, an erstwhile associate of Yogaraj Bhat, is all set to make his maiden venture as a filmmaker with his first independent film, Udaala. The debutant director is teaming up with Prithvi Shamanur, the actor from Padavipoorva. Daali Dhananjay made the official announcement on Thursday, along with unveiling the title poster of the film.

Scheduled to go on floors on February 20, this youthful drama has a blend of comedy, romance, and a dash of action. Udaala is set to feature Prithvi Shamanur as a jack-of-all-trades and a tourist guide while introducing Hrithika Shrinivas as the female lead.

Amol, hailing from North Karnataka with a background in filmmaking, has nurtured a long-standing dream of creating a film that truly captures the essence of North Karnataka. With Udaala, he is turning that dream into reality.

Ravi Shamanur and Yogaraj Bhat are joining hands to produce the film. The shooting is set to begin in Bengaluru, with Bijapur being the primary location for most of the scenes. The music for the film will be composed by the duo Chetan and Daavey, with lyrics for six songs penned by Yogaraj Bhat. Shivasankar Noorambada will be handling the cinematography for Udaala.

Surya Vasishta, Shruthi Hariharan's Saramsha gets release date

CE FEATURES

SURYA Vasishta, who started his career as an assistant director in films like Tamassu, Lucia, U-Turn, Badmash, Gantumoote, and Shivaji Surathkal, is set to mark his directorial debut with Saramsha. The film will hit screens on February 15. Ahead of the release, the makers unveiled a song from the film. Hemanth M Rao, the director of Sapta Sagaradaache Ello, graced the event and released the trailer. He further commended its quality and extended best wishes to the team.

Saramsha is billed to be an emotional drama, and the trailer reveals the distinct significance of each character. Director Surya Vasishtha breathes life into a key character, while Deepak Subramanya, as Tejaswai, presents a distinctive on-screen persona. Shruti Hariharan plays Mayavi, while Shweta Gupta plays a book publisher passionate about the Kannada language. Saramsha is produced by Ravi Kashyap and RK Nallam under Vibha Kashyap Productions and Clap Board Production. The film will feature a background score by Aparajith along with Surya Vasishta. Udit Haritas has handled the music direction and Pradeep Naik is the editor. The film also features Asif Kshatriya, Ravi Bhatt, Ram Manjunath, Satish Kumar, and Prithvi Banavasi.

Alemari E Baduku is a tale centred around nomads

CE FEATURES

DIRECTOR Siddu C Kattimani has highlighted the lives of nomads in Alemari E Badukku, which is slated to hit theatres on February 16. "Following my stint as an assistant director with Premam Poojyam, I am set to make my directorial debut with this film. I have not only helmed the film, but also crafted the story, screenplay, dialogues, and lyrics," says the first-time director at the film's song release event.

The film features a collection of five songs composed by Thyagaraja MS with lyrics penned by Siddu C Kattimani and Manoj Sougand. The songs are now out on Siri Music.

Alemari E Baduku, produced by Divyakumar H N features Sridhar Atavi, a theatre artist, as lead, who has additionally taken up the film's editing. The cast also includes actors Sandeep, Raghavendra C Kattimani, Sahana and Neelambika in pivotal roles.

Abhay possesses all the qualities to become the next mass hero: Karthik

CE FEATURES

Karthik Mahesh, winner of Bigg Boss Kannada Season 10, launched the trailer of Mandya Haida along with political Ravikumar Gowda, ahead of the film's release on February 16. The film stars Abhay Chandrashekhar in the lead role.

Speaking at the trailer launch event, Kartik Mahesh had a few words to say about his friend Abhay Chankrashekar, with whom he worked in Sagar Puranik's Dollu. "Abhay possesses all the qualities to become the next mass hero," he mentions, adding, "The film offers a blend of action and comedy, catering to the preferences of Mandya's audience." Mandya Haida is a family entertainer showcasing Mandya's high lifestyle and the twists of love. This film tells the story of a brave young man who goes to great lengths to protect his love. Abhay Chandrashekhar, a Mandya native who has worked in a couple of films, is making his debut as the lead with this film.

Further, Karthik Mahesh also expressed his best wishes to the team and appreciated the efforts of director Shrikanth. The film which will have five songs composed by Surendranath, will feature cinematography by Manugowda. Bal Rajavadi, Vishnu, and producer Chandra Shekhar have also played crucial roles in the film.

Abhay's father, Chandrashekar, has bankrolled the project under the Tejas Creations banner. Interestingly, the film, mostly shot in Mandya, features fifteen comedians and seasoned artists.

An interesting premise let down by a lacklustre screenplay

A SHARADHAA

ONE who is perceived as a hero turns out to be an unforeseen opponent, shattering preconceived notions. This premise forms the core of Supplier Shankara. Director Ranjith Singh Rajput weaves several elements at the beginning of Supplier Shankara, which eventually culminates into a revenge drama. The film then unfolds through a pretty straightforward narrative. Navigating childhood loss, Shankara's (Nischith Korodi) journey from village to city is driven by a search for purpose, He then encounters an unexpected saviour, a compassionate bar owner.

Shankara's growth as a supplier in the bar for over 15 years is shown along with his emotional state, with his mother's photo serving as a constant source of strength. The local bar becomes a hub for diverse stories, turning strangers into brothers. These lively stories add a sense of lightness, which is in stark contrast to the unsettling child kidnappings that happen in the city. Life takes a beautiful turn when Shankara meets Punya (Deepika Aradhya), a school teacher. Love blooms, leading to marriage plans until an unexpected murder in a bar changes the course of Shankara's life.

While it begins on a high, with a gripping premise, the rest of the film is let down by a lacklustre screenplay. Shankara's journey from village to city, his life at the bar, and his love story, along with the interaction of the police with the parents regarding their missing children, form the first half. The rest of the film takes a serious tone as all the mystery starts to unravel. Some episodes, especially the police brutality and the ones involving children, border on gratuitous violence. This raises questions about whether these scenes were actually needed or if they were just added for shock value. These scenes fail to strike a balance between authentic portrayal and subtlety.

Even the background score fails to resonate with the intense events playing out on-screen. Despite the many hiccups, Nischith Korodi, who has turned into a commercial hero with this film, has managed to add the 'mass' elements that were required but there is definitely more room for improvement. Nischith, along with Gopal Krishna Deshpande as the police constable, bring depth to their respective characters. But does it serve the story?

With a more thoughtful approach, Supplier Shankara could have delivered a more riveting and captivating experience.
